State gives okay on bond proposals

By HENRY CANTIN

An application filed by the Romulus Community School District for preliminary qualification of new school building bond issues has been approved by the Michigan Department of Education, School Superintendent Robert L. McConeghy announced Monday.

The action by the Department of Education will be pressed to the Romulus Board of Education at its May 10 meeting, when the school board is expected to take official action on submitting the new bond proposals to the school district's electorate at the June 14 election.

The application for preliminary qualification was filed by the school board following an informational meeting held in the auditorium of Romulus Senior High school, April 26.

McConeghy reported that the State Department of Education must approve the application before the bond proposals can be presented to the voters. The bond proposals will be presented as separate bonding propositions.

The proposition approved by the state agency calls for a bond issue in the amount of $10,773,000 for the construction of three new elementary schools, one new junior high school, additions to four elementary schools, additions to the senior high school and general repair at the present senior and junior high schools.

The second proposition calls for the issuance of a $1,250,000 bond issue to finance the construction and equipping a swimming pool addition to the high school.

The school district's student projection for the 1971-72 school year is 6,447. And student count as of March 26 stood at 5,921. McConeghy reported.

The estimated student membership in the next five years is reported at 8,777 he said.

A breakdown of proposed building projects with their estimated costs are as follows:

New elementary school, $1,300,000; second new elementary school, $1,300,000; new junior high school, $4,430,000, addition to Beverly Elementary School, $761,500; addition to Harrison Elementary School, $595,600; addition to Cory Elementary school, $402,400; addition to Mt. Pleasant Elementary School, $402,400.

Other projects are: general repair of Romulus Elementary School, $59,600; general repair of Romulus Junior High School, $192,900; and additions to Romulus Senior High School, $1,373,600.

On the bond proposal for financing the high school, the township board declined to act on a request made by George W. Schweigert, 46716 Ayres, Van Buren Township, to go on record as opposed to the proposed airport expansion.

At last week's meeting, the township board declined to act on a request made by George W. Schweigert, 46716 Ayres, Van Buren Township, to go on record as opposed to the proposed airport expansion.

The township board members reported that they do not yet know the wishes of many residents in the township.

road commission made the announcement of the proposed airport expansion in February.

The private meeting was arranged by the Township Attorney Thornton Hopson because of the reported concern of board members and township residents.

The airport expansion plans involve the takeover of 1,800 acres of land, including the elimination of the Mark Elementary and Junior High Schools. The eastern boundaries of the Willow Run Airport would be increased and extended to Belleville Rd. north of Ecorse Rd.

Public hearing slated on airport expansion

The proposed $100 million dollar expansion and development of Willow Run Airport will be the subject of discussion at a scheduled public hearing to be held at 8 p.m. May 17 at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

The proposed expansion of the Ypsilanti based airport would make it a major air cargo terminal and reliever for the Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

The expansion would follow the line between the Buren Township and the Wayne County Road Commission.

Renewal funds are granted

A federal grant in the amount of $3,543,167 to finance the first phase of Romulus Urban Renewal Program has been approved by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, George Wilhelm, Urban Renewal director for the City of authorization of the grant.

Romulus announced Monday. Wilhelm received official notification of the approval of the long-awaited federal grant from U.S. Congressman William D. Ford, who, Wilhelm reports, has been working diligently on speeding up U.S.

The first phase of Romulus' Urban Renewal Program involves 175 acres of land located in the Wayne-Beverly Rd. area. It is part of a total of 575 acres that is to be redeveloped over the next eight years.

The federal funds will be used primarily to pave streets, install storm drains, replat the area, buy up sub-standard buildings, build parks and then sell to private developers for the construction of "badly needed" homes.

Final action will be up to Romulus City Council when it considers entering into a contract with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to participate in the financing of the Urban Renewal Program's first phase.

The city will be required to finance one fourth and the federal government, through HUD finances the remainder of the project's cost.

The city can apply improvements in the area toward its share of the project.

Leaders selected for Mayor's drug council

Earl Lamb, assistant principal of Romulus Senior High School, was elected chairman of the Mayor's Council On Drugs at an organizational meeting held last Thursday.

Also elected to the steering group were Ford Berry as vice chairman, Mrs. Henriette Ellis, secretary, and Rori Makino treasurer.

Chairman pro-tem Mickey Reel, following opening statements by Romulus mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, introduced the group of about twenty persons, who had attended in response to invitations from the mayor's office.

Following a general discussion as to the direction and procedures to be taken by the council, it was agreed that two committees would be formed.

As proposed by Harold Connon, principal of Mt. Pleasant Elementary School, one group, headed by co-chairman Fred Coleman and Mrs. Linda Merriman, will attempt to identify local problems. Another committee comprised of the officers of the council, would look closely at programs in neighboring communities to see what could be adapted to the specific needs of Romulus.

It was decided that a group of council members would attend a conference to be held in Adrian on Thursday, May 20. They will meet at the high school to form car pools for the trip. Each member planning to attend will pay his own registration fee of $3.

The next meeting of the council is scheduled for Thursday, May 27, at the high school, 9650 S. Wayne Rd.

A wage boost of $300 per year across the board offered Romulus police by City Council in March has been rejected as "insufficient," Robert Kahl, police officer and president of the Romulus Police association, reported Monday.

$300 'insufficient'

Police nix wage offer

The wage hike was in addition to a $600 salary boost accepted by the association some weeks prior to the March offer.

When the city's latest offer was received, the association accepted it on condition that further talks be had on wages and related matters.

Kahl stated that the council announced at a recent session with the association that it would not hold additional discussions on wages in the 1971-72 contract.

Kahl reported that the present salary range at the Romulus Police Department for officers is $8,360 to $9,380. The starting salary is $7,500.

Kahl contends that the salary with the $300 hike is still below that of "rookie" policeman in surrounding communities.

The city some time ago entered into a law enforcement contract with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department to supply police protection 24 hours a day in the City of Romulus.

The contract has not as yet been approved by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, who operate the Sheriff's Department.

The association has filed court proceedings against the city, Wayne County and others to restrain the enforcement of the contract pending a full hearing on the association's complaint.

Under the proposed contract, members of the Romulus police would be absorbed by the county sheriff's office and their seniority maintained.

Principal blasts handling of fire

A formal complaint against the Romulus Fire Department's handling of a grass fire in the vicinity of the Beverly Elementary School last Friday has been made to Romulus City Council.

The complaint was made by School Principal Terrel M. LeCesne on behalf of 430 pupils and teachers at the school.

Principal LeCesne detailed his charges against the fire department in a communication addressed to Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and forwarded to the mayor's office the day of the grass fire.

LeCesne's complaint stated:

"At approximately 1:15 p.m. on Friday, April 23, a small grass fire was reported to the school office in a field west of the school. The fire department was called immediately. The department dispatched a truck to the scene within minutes.

"However, instead of putting out the fire, the firemen proceeded to spread the fire across the field and watch it burn. At the same time, several children were on the playground.

"The wind was blowing in the direction of the building causing considerable smoke inside adding to the discomfort of pupils and teachers, not to mention the excitement engendered throughout the building.

Romulus is without 'adequate' protection

The City of Romulus is without "adequate police protection" at the present time, Robert Kahl, president of the Romulus Police Officers Association charged Monday.

Kahl, who is a member of the police department, reported that the city is in need of more officers since the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol has discontinued making their usual patrol runs throughout the city.

He also said that only one of the department's three scout cars is being used to any extent and the other two are "unsafe" to operate.

He asked residents to be patient when summoning a police car. Kahl did admit that the Road Patrol will answer calls if summoned to the city, but added that the Sheriff's Department is apparently cutting runs as a economy move.

The sheriff has for a number of years furnished police services free to the community.

Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported that the cars of the department are in bad shape and in need of replacement.

The police chief made request recently to City Council for new police cars. The council tabled the request pending budget determinations.

Building permits halted

Romulus City Council has placed a 10-day moratorium on the issuance of all building permits within Romulus.

The council approved the moratorium at a special session held on April 30.

The motion was made by Councilman James C. Stewart. He was supported by Councilman Ellis T. Pennington.

The purpose of the move to permit study and finalization of the city's proposed Master Plan by the City Council.

Warehouse robbery sparks state search

Two armed men who robbed the Wonder Bread Warehouse, 35730 Goddard Rd., Romulus, and escaped with approximately $8,000 are the subjects of a state-wide police search.

The men, one armed with a sawed-off shot gun, entered the warehouse around 8:30 a.m. last Thursday, and ordered one of the seven employees present to open the office safe.

Warehouse manager, James Sharp, of 522 N. Vermont, Royal Oak, and the other employees were herded into a rear bathroom where they were bound hand and foot with two-inch wide adhesive tape.

An employee, who arrived at work as the robbers were running to their car reported the men entered a 1970 or 1971 dark blue Dodge or Plymouth with a Michigan license plate MJP 016. Direction of their escape is unknown.

Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported that a warehouse customer came to the Romulus police station and reported that she found the warehouse safe opened.

Chief Koch, Sgt. Robert Taylor and Patrolman Robert Pidgeon sped to the warehouse. They found Sharp and the employees and untied them.

The men are described as both 30 to 35, both about six feet tall, weighing around 185 pounds. They were well built.

MASON G. EASTRIDGE

HERMAN S. BLACK

Masons advanced

Two Romulus residents have received the 32nd Degree in Scottish Rite of Freemasonry at the Masonic Temple, Detroit.

They are Mason G. Eastridge, 29571 Kings Rd.; and Herman S. Black, 23660 Mott's Dr.

They were among 418 Masons living in the 11 counties of Southeastern Michigan, which make up the Detroit Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite. Detroit has a membership of 20,000.

The principal benevolence of Scottish Rite is its research program into the cause and cure of Schizophrenia, a form of mental illness. Scottish Rite members have voluntarily contributed millions of dollars to Universities, Colleges and Clinics since the program started 36 years ago.

Speaker on the final day of the four-day reunion (May 1) was the Illustrious George A. Newbury, 33, of Boston, Sovereign Grand Commander, Scottish Rite, for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, an organization of more than 500,000 32nd Degree Masons.

Scholarship party slated

The Huron Township Jaycee Auxiliary is holding a public Tupperware Party at 7:30 p.m. May 13.

It will be held in the basement of St. Paul's

Lutheran Church, New Boston. Refreshments will be served.

Persons wishing to place an outside order can call 753-7179, 753-9043 or 753-9160.

Police service crisis feared in townships

The possibility of losing the current police services of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol in Van Buren Township has prompted the township board to seek the assistance of other affected communities to fight any reduction in police protection by the County.

The township board has instructed township supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer, and Thornton Hopson, township attorney, to seek to form a coalition of adjacent communities similarly served to fight any reduction of police services.

The possibility of cutbacks in the sheriff's operating budget is almost a certainty and because of this Van Buren Township and other western and downriver townships face the loss of Road Patrol services.

Last fall, the Wayne County Board of Commissioners made sharp reductions in the sheriff's budget eliminating Road Patrol services in eight townships including Van Buren unless these townships would pay for the service. The sheriff won a delay on the cutbacks.

The road patrol may still be eliminated in the 1971-72 budget.

The township board contends that the cost of providing complete police protection would be prohibitive to the township.

In view of the possible cutbacks in sheriff's police services, the township board instructed its administrative staff to meet with the officials of other affected communities to discuss how to meet this contingency.

Sumpter school kids elect student council

The students of Sumpter Elementary School under the direction of staff sponsor David Larabell have elected a student council.

The council's purpose is to represent the students in school activity planning. The council has planned a marble and kite contest as well as beautification projects such as grounds pickup, clearing a shaded park area and planting flowers and shrubs.

"Children have more pride and respect for things they have a part in doing," states Thomas McLenon, principal. "Perhaps these wonderful kids can help make Sumpter Elementary School a place to be even more proud of. At any rate, this is a constructive way to channel their interests and energies."

Handling of fire hit by principal

"I informed the firemen of our situation and requested and pleaded with them to put out the fire. Their reply was, 'It will burn itself out in a few minutes.' It wasn't until my request was repeated several times that they made any effort to extinguish the flames, causing considerable smoke.

"I then called the fire department to file a complaint only to be cut off by the deskman who said, 'call back later.'

"When I returned outside the fire was still going while the firemen stood by. Again I urged them to stop the fire. After an exchange of words with several firemen, they proceeded to put out the fire.

"My concern is for the safety and welfare of the 410 children entrusted to me and I am sure that the callous behavior of the firemen in question posed a threat to them.

"Firemen are supposed to put out fires not watch them burn."

Chief defends fire handling

Romulus Fire Chief Joseph Crova defended the handling of a grass fire in the area of the Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Rd., by members of the city's fire department.

The grass fire was reported to the Fire Department on Friday, April 23. Firemen from Fire Hall No. 3 responded.

School Principal Terrel LeCesne, in a communication to Romulus Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, criticized the handling of the fire.

He charged that the firemen, "instead of putting out the grass fire permitted it to burn across the field and watched it burn. The wind was blowing in the direction of the school building causing a considerable amount of smoke inside, adding to the discomfort of pupils and teachers, not to mention the excitement engendered throughout the building."

He further charged that the firemen ignored several pleas to put out the fire.

Fire Chief Crova, who was not at the fire but who investigated the matter said "The reason firemen let the grass fire burn was that we had had 22 grass fires in the area in a four-hour period. During the last month we had approximately 50 grass fires and three fires at buildings. Two of the three building fires were set.

"I wasn't there but if I had been I would have done the same thing. If the firemen had extinguished the fire immediately they would have had to return to fight it again." We think youngsters are setting the fires and we hope to apprehend them."

Chief Crova reported that no one was in danger and the firemen had "the situation well under control even by permitting grass fire to burn itself out."

Auxiliary spreads cheer

The Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary, with the help of local Girl Scouts, visited Woody's Rest Home at 29000 Chase Rd. and recently spread a bit of Easter cheer. Each of the 42 patients was presented with an Easter basket.

The Romulus Jaycees provided transportation and also brought a lovely Easter Lily plant for the Home. Gerald Hoffer of the Jaycees donated all of the Easter baskets.

This was a thoroughly enjoyable project for the Auxiliary members and the five Girl Scouts assisting.

Bids sought

The City of Romulus is seeking sealed bids for various items of fire equipment for the Romulus Fire Department.

Equipment specifications are on file at the city clerk's office, 36572 Goddard Rd. The sealed bids will be received by the city clerk until 5 p.m. June 10. The bids will be opened at the regular council meeting June 10.

Bid okayed

The Romulus City Council has approved a bid price of $4,350.52 each for the purchase of two, two-ton trucks for the city's Department of Public Works.

The bid was submitted by Crova Sales and Services of Romulus and accepted on the recommendation of DPW Director William Pritula.

A bid submitted by Mark Chevrolet of Wayne was rejected by the council for non-compliance with specifications.

Charter dinner held

The Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary held a Charter Night Dinner and party at the Supper Club on Haggerty Rd. and I-94 Expressway.

The auxiliary wishes to thank guests Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and wife; Mrs. Ann Steinway, the State Jaycee Auxiliary president and her husband Ron Collins, Romulus Jaycee president, and his wife; Mrs. Evelyn Scaggs, president of Taylor Jaycees, and her husband; and Mrs. Rose Silvey, president of the Romulus Auxiliary, and her husband, for helping to make it such an enjoyable evening.

Highlight of the evening was the group's acceptance by the Michigan State Jaycees and it also afforded an opportunity to get needed information from the state.

high earnings for the ambitious group of parents and teachers.

Mrs. Carole Filkins was chairman for this year's event that had "May Day" as its theme. A steady flow of community residents, many who had gathered before the doors opened at noon, kept cashiers busy until closing time at 6 p.m.

The most popular concessions, according to Mrs. Filkins, were the Cake Walk, that boasted 300 cakes at the beginning of the day, with Mrs. Barbara Romano in charge, and a new event called the Spook Room, an "experience" that drew 500 customers.

Another hit was a band room that featured two popular local music groups who donated their services in two shifts throughout the day. The modified Addition, featuring the Finley's, started the day, while the Pre-Science Illusion, headed by Warren Kennedy, wound up the second shift. Both groups obliged their fans with autographs.

Small fry got rid of a lot of hostility at the sponge toss booth that had school principal Val Connolly and custodian Ray Chrisman taking a soaking from their "fans".

Parade entries sought

All community groups interested in participating in the Romulus Jaycees Annual Homecoming Parade are urged to send name, address, phone number and type of entry to Parade Director Harold Connolly, Romulus Jaycees, P.O. Box 35, Romulus, Mich. 48190.

The parade will be held in front of the former Mill's Bakery building on Goddard

Rd., and will run through town to the festival site.

All community groups, local industries and businesses are welcome to submit entries.

The parade will kick off promptly at 6:30 p.m. All local entries are sought except mini-bikes, due to problems encountered in the past.

The parade will happen on Wednesday, June 2.

Bond proposals given approval

$1 million; and miscellaneous costs, $24,500.

The bond proposals expected to be presented to the voters June 14 in addition school elections are:

Proposition No. 1: Shall the Romulus Community Schools borrow the sum of not to exceed ($11.1 million and issues its bonds therefor for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping new elementary school buildings, a new junior high school building and additions to existing school buildings, re-equipping and improving existing school buildings and acquiring additional school sites and improving existing school sites and the new school sites?"

Proposition No. 2: "Shall the Romulus Community Schools borrow the sum of not to exceed ($1.1 million) and issue its bonds therefor for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping a swimming pool addition to the high school building?"

Exchange Day to be different

The mayors of Romulus and Muskegon, selected in Michigan Week Mayors Exchange pairings to exchange executive responsibilities on Mayors Exchange Day (May 17), will instead meet in Lansing to discuss mutual problems with members of Michigan legislature, it was disclosed Monday.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael reported that he and Mayor Edward J. Stewart of Muskegon have agreed to meet at the state capitol, halfway point between their respective cities, instead of expending funds on welcoming programs and festivities for visiting dignitaries on Mayors Exchange Day.

The elimination of a planned program of welcoming activities and sponsored tours of the city will mean a saving to Romulus taxpayers of approximately $500, Mayor Carmichael said.

He reported that the City of Muskegon would probably waive several hundreds of dollars by a similar elimination of planned activities.

Mayor Exchange Day is a highlight of Michigan Week.

Civil Service ordinance set

The Romulus City Council approved a Civil Service ordinance at a special meeting held on April 30.

Voters of the City of Romulus will vote on the ordinance on June 14 along with the annual school election.

The City Charter of Romulus requires that members of the city council not adopt (as previously reported) but present to the electorate for their consideration a Civil Service ordinance and program within 18 months of the effective date of the charter, which was approved by the voters in May, 1970.

The Ordinance, if approved by the voters, will cover from 50 to 60 employees.

The deadline for registering to vote on the proposal is May 14 at 8 p.m.

Deadline nearing for school vote

Members of the Huron School District will be voting to fill five school board posts in the June 14 election.

At stake in the annual school election are two four-year terms, two three-year terms and a one-year term.

Three of the terms are the expired portions of three members recalled in the March 29 election.

The school board members recalled were Mrs. Howard (Mildred) Bennett, Harry Hartsuff and S. Erma Palmiter. The school board has made interim appointments to serve until June.

Nomination petitions for persons wishing to run for these posts may be obtained at the Board of Education, located at 18955 Hannan Rd., New Boston, in the Hannan Road Elementary School.

The deadline for filing nominating petitions is 4 p.m. Saturday, May 15.

And the last day to register for the election is May 14.

Towanda, Pa., Review: "Animals may not be able to tell man in so many words what they think of his lifestyle but they manage to get the message across. Like the gorilla which escaped from the San Diego Zoo. In the past when an animal gained his freedom in this manner he usually led his captors on a merry chase, savoring to the last instant his freedom. Not this time. Within 15 minutes the gorilla was found back at her cage 'scared to death,' according to her keeper. Man may not have reached the point where he is willing to trade modern existence with all its problems for the security of a cell, but if the gorilla has reached that stage, can man be far behind?"

Upsala, Minn., News-Tribune: "What the country needs most is for everyone to pick up their shovel and start producing an honest day's work. Just maybe, the protesters who are feeding on past generations and the rest of us, may take the hint. A good soaking sweat will make them realize there is a joy in a day's accomplishments without being critical of the other fellow."

In years gone by

A look through The Daily eagle files at news of Western Wayne County one, 15 and 25 years ago:

25 YEARS AGO

May 5, 1946 — Refund of homestead taxes paid by veterans during their World War II service will be made by Garden City upon application, it was announced by City Clerk Douglas Waddell.

Roan said that under recent state legislation veterans are entitled to a refund of "certain taxes which may have been paid on their homestead during service in the armed forces of the United States and for one year thereafter."

Navy veteran of World War II, Norman O. Stockmeyer, of Gelnwood road, is the first to announce candidacy for member of District 9 Board of Education. Stockmeyer, resident of Wayne since 1938, spent two years in the Navy, is married and the father of four children.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions is May 21. Petitions may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of Education at the board's offices on Chestnut.

Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Biggerstaff of 4433 Sophia street announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth to Robert Tooz of Ypsilanti.

Miss Biggerstaff is now in Colorado springs, Col., where she will remain until the latter part of this month.

The ceremony will take place in June.

Financial and membership reports were given by presidents of individual Business and Professional Women's Clubs of District 1, at a District meeting at Dearborn Inn. The function was attended by five members of the Wayne Chapter: Mrs. Inas Langworthy, president; Mrs. Howard Stein, Mrs. Leona Ryckley, Mrs. Louis Hisey, and Mrs. Julia Eastman.

The history of Business and Professional Women's Clubs and their standing as an international organization was outlined by Mrs. Daisy Jewett, a representative of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women.

William J. Engle, clerk of Nankin township, explained the details of registration to the women, who were holding a political workshop in the Dearborn Moose hall.

Four panel discussions were held. State senators spoke on the difference between the two political parties, and the women were told how to help their candidates win elections.

Sharlene Moers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Moers, 2915 Canton center, has been awarded a 4-H club scholarship at Michigan State University.

She plans to start college next fall and to prepare to be a 4-H club agent. She will major in home economics.

She has already won several state awards for 4-H activities.

This makes it two in a row. For the second straight weekend, Inkster proved that it's one of the most powerful track combinations in the state.

With the glitter of trophies won in the Central Michigan Relays still blinding the curiosity seekers that gaze in the trophy case at Inkster High, the Vikings added another title and two trophies to their collection.

River Rouge ran a close second as Inkster rucked in the Albion Relays title.

A banquet, which was highlighted by the awarding of prizes for the recent shuffleboard tournament, was held by the Square Deal Club.

The Club supported two leagues, one operating on Friday nights and the other on Sunday nights, and prizes were awarded winners foreach night.

Friday night champions were: first prize, Mr. and Mrs. William Crewdson; second prize, Mr. and Mrs. George Clemons; booby prize, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jones. Sunday winners were: first prize, Mr. Harry Pritchard and Mrs. Bernice Proth; second prize, Mr. Ray Webb and Mrs. Erwin Talka; booby prize, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer

A very active young woman in the Wayne-Westland area will chair the "Women for Griffin Committee" in the campaign of Charles R. (Trav.) Griffin for the one-year term on the Wayne Community School Board.

Money matters occupy legislature

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK, State representative, 38th District

The task the legislature faced when it returned from its Easter recess was the need for action on two closely related bills.

One was for the transfer of $45 million from the motor vehicle accident fund to the general fund. The other was a bill to appropriate $50 million to the state department of social services which was running out of funds for welfare payments.

Because of the depleted state of the general fund, it was necessary to work out the transfer before the additional money could be channeled into the social services department.

Both the house and senate had earlier authorized the loan from the accident claims fund, but there were differences over whether or not the money should be repaid with interest.

The majority in the house was in favor of interest payments on the loan, which it felt was necessary in order to preserve the integrity of the fund and keep faith with those who had paid into it. The senate was opposed to interest payments. This forced the bill into a house-senate conference committee which finally worked out a compromise.

This settlement authorized interest payments, but left the decision on the rate of interest to the 1973 legislature. The majority in the house approved this compromise by a 69-59 2/3 vote. It passed in the senate, 27 to 5.

The bill was sent to Governor Brickley for his signature. (Governor Milliken was out of the state attending a national republican governors' conference.)

There were a number of other important features of this bill. It raised the annual fee for uninsured motorists from $35 to $45 and eliminated the $1 fee which insured motorists have had to pay into the fund each year when they purchased their license plates. There was a provision, however, which would permit reinstatement of the $1 fee if there is any danger of the fund becoming insolvent.

The agreement also permits the secretary of state to settle claims involving an unidentified uninsured motorist, retains maximum benefits paid out of the fund at present levels (The house had sought to increase maximum benefits), and delays the start of interest payments until the 1973-74 fiscal year.

There was not complete satisfaction with the compromise, even from the house members on the conference committee, but it was felt it was necessary to support the bill because of the pressing need for money for welfare.

It is expected that there will be further bills which will attempt to correct some of the faults in the original loan legislation.

One positive note was that the compromise did at least include almost all of the principles supported by the house.

On the same day that it approved this compromise, the house passed a senate-approved bill to appropriate an additional $5 million to the social services department, clearing the way for payment of the week's welfare checks.

The social services department was holding back some $1.6 million in checks because they could not be sent out without the supplemental appropriation.

The day the appropriations bill cleared the house was the first day that the welfare fund went dry. However, barring delays because of late mailing, welfare recipients should have received their checks on time.

The appropriation also will enable the social services department to pay blue cross and blue shield for medicare payments made to doctors, hospitals, pharmacists and others.

Reader is disgusted with political system

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my feeling of disgust toward the entire political system in the United States today.

I am not a radical-leftist bum, but rather an American History-Political Science student who is fed up with the way things have been run.

On the local level there has been alleged wrong-doing on the part of former township officials. An investigation was announced, but nothing will come of it if past methods of dealing with the situation are followed again.

On the state level we have a representative who shifts positions with the prevailing wind. It's a terrific way to get re-elected, but nothing constructive ever gets done. Look at all the promises made in regard to cleaning up Belleville Lake. The resulting legislation was so ineffectual that it was almost pointless to ask for it.

Again on the state level, we have a senator who, according to written reports, has abused legislative franking privileges. To him it is probably "pertinent information," but to me it is campaign propaganda sent near election time!

On the national level we have a Republican Senator who has continually supported President Nixon's Vietnam policy. Now, as it nears election time, we hear him talk like a "dove." If the policies were so successful why doesn't he support President Nixon completely? Because he's afraid of losing the election, that's why!

We have a President who has promised a plan to get us out of Vietnam. That was in 1968. It is now 1971 and present conditions indicate that we will still have a large number of troops in Vietnam in 1973. Talk about a credibility gap!

To many people this letter will seem extremely pessimistic...which it is. On the other hand, maybe the young people in Belleville will realize that something is wrong and understand that they will have to be the ones to do something about it.

I am not an advocate of violence and revolution. As I stated before I am a student of American history and politics. The solutions to our problems lie in reform of the present system.

To do this one must read about what is going on. More than that, you must do something about it. When the time for election comes around in 1972 be aware of the issues: don't pull the lever just because you have always been a Democrat or Republican.

To all of the young people in my generation I suggest that you go out tomorrow and register to vote so that in '72 you can effectively do something about the problems which you say are hopeless today.

Wayne reader lauds mayor, fire marshal

To the editor:

It was nice to see the mayor in short sleeves - it was cool that day - receive a card for a glaucoma test from Bob Miller, chairman of the clinic.

To those who haven't taken advantage of this service, do it now. Don't wait until it's too late. I know I can see now.

Another interesting picture in The Daily Eagle sponsored by Hartford Insurance Company was Fire Prevention Week. Wayne Fire Marshal Russell Johnson has an enthusiastic group of volunteers with their red hats. A fine picture.

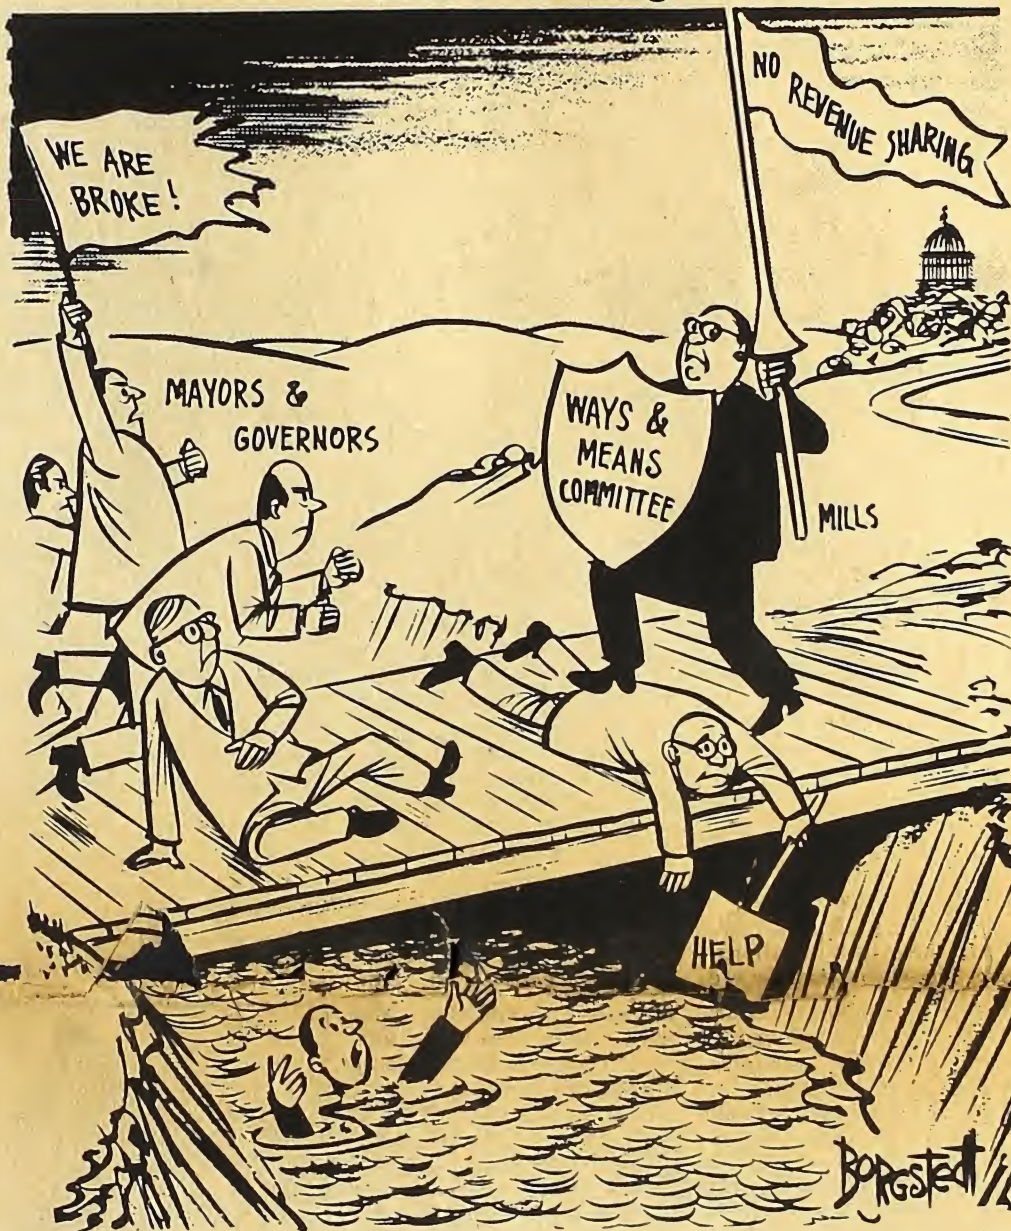

I hope all schools participating receive a green pennant. Fires in homes take many lives and cause thousands of dollars damage to property. Many of the fires are simply carelessness. I hope the fire marshal will print the steps to take for a safe home from fire.

Speaking of schools

Peace Corps is top project

By JAMES MADIGAN, PRINCIPAL OF CORY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Peace Corps projects, carpenter for class rooms, outdoor education facilities, library books, weekly hot lunch. Sound like a lot of trouble? Not if you belong to the Cory School PTA.

These activities and many others are the normal diet of this active PTA. The Peace Corps project was the brain child of the PTA of 1969-70, Mrs. Fran Petre, president. We decided to sponsor a project in Latin America because that area is germane to our Social Studies curriculum.

A school fair was planned and promoted using South America as the central theme. One thousand dollars was raised. Contact was made with the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C.

After some communication, Cory School was assigned to help enlarge an elementary school in Camacani, Peru. Camacani is located high in the Andes Mountains near Lake Titicaca. It is a pure native group of the Aymara tribe.

We have been in communication with Jan Rus, the U.S. Peace Corps worker in that area. A portfolio of correspondence from Peace Corps officials, children of the Camacani School and adults of the community is being developed. Direct communication between the children of both schools has not been established as yet. School is out down there from January through March.

Most ($968.20) of the money sent to Camacani is used to buy material. Land and labor charges are borne by the local village. The balance ($31.80) of the money was sent to the north of Peru which suffered from the violent earthquake of May, 1970.

One of the problems faced by both partners in this project is written communication. All correspondence at both ends must be translated. The people of Camacani speak their Indian tongue but also learn to read and write in Spanish. All of our correspondence goes in English.

We have solved part of our problem by enlisting the help of translators. After one appeal to the public, three persons volunteered their services: Mrs. Theora Cass of Westland, a former teacher in Romulus; Miss Connie Riggs of Belleville, a former Peace Corps worker in Latin America; and Mr. Mario Monroy of Romulus who was born and raised in Mexico City.

As this project develops there may be need for more help.

Our long range goals are to promote an awareness in the minds of our children that distance and language differences do not have to be a barrier to international understanding and friendship.

We wish to share in the development of a specific group of people toward self-realization on their own terms. We wish to learn more in depth of the life and times of the people of Camacani.

'Brigadoon' is coming to Belleville High

The famed Broadway musical "Brigadoon" will be presented by Belleville Senior High School Students at 8 p.m. in the Belleville High School's new auditorium on May 14, 15 and again on May 20 and 21.

The musical presentation is under the direction of Keith Drayton, Belleville High School director, who was responsible for the successful "Oklahoma" last year. "Brigadoon" will be the second Broadway production to be presented by the high school students.

There are 13 speaking parts in the play, and the actors who are shown on this page are supported by a chorus of singers and dancers that swell the number of students involved to a total of 45.

The exuberant Lerne and Loewe music that enhances the production is provided by the "Brigadoon" orchestra—mostly members of the Belleville High School's band and orchestra.

May 8 has been designated as "Brigadoon Day" by the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce. Retail merchants will feature "Brigadoon Specials" and encourage their patrons to purchase tickets for the play.

Curriculum committee ends 18-month study

The Senior High School Curriculum Committee of the Van Buren Public School District has submitted its final report to the school district's Board of Education.

The report covers an 18-month study. The committee was established by the Professional Study Committee of the school system and held its first meeting in October, 1969.

In the committee's report, committee members detailed the major avenues of their study and made recommendations to the school board. The report, signed by committee members stated:

From our first meeting in October, 1969, this group was concerned with the approximate 70 per cent of high school students who enter the world of work without adequate preparation. It was this concern that kept our group active for 18 months. "We urgently recommend the hiring of a vocational director who would be in a position to take full advantage of all the state and federal aid grants for development of a vocational occupation program. The administration of the present program rests with two administrators who already have other areas of responsibility.

"The purchase of the Hennells building was a step in the right direction towards the development of a vocational program. We commend the establishment of the three new vocational areas this school year. We are also happy to know that the grounds maintenance is being done by the school and hope in due time it will become a cooperative program.

"We wish to direct your attention to the 1964 report 'Recommendations for a Vocational Educational Program at Belleville High School.' Especially the need for the establishment of a T &

I cooperative program. We brought this to your attention in the preliminary report of last spring.

"Saline, Ypsilanti, Wayne, Ecorse, Plymouth, Garden City, Taylor, Livonia, and Trenton are participating in this kind of program.

"The Occupational Interest Survey indicates to us that insufficient information is disseminated to the students. We recommend a re-evaluation of the total counseling program.

"We recommend the activation of our general advisory committee and appropriate craft advisory committee composed of local employers, employees, and others as directed by the Michigan state plan for vocational education.

"Our superintendent, his staff, counselors, and other school personnel have been very cooperative during our study period. We sincerely thank them for their interest and support."

The committee members are:

Bart Berg, coordinating committee representative; Norman Drayton, David Esch, Robert Evanski, Dr. Jerald Griess, secretary; Lynne Hamilton, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Barbara Jorgensen, chairman, Mrs. Paula Miller and Mrs. Jean Orskey.

Sarah Vaughan at Lofy's

SARAH VAUGHAN

Sarah Vaughan opens at Lofy's Pavilion Room in Plymouth tomorrow night. A singer's singer, Sarah comes across with an emotional impact that has been demonstrated on such recordings as: "The Lord's Prayer" and "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child". But her greatest contribution to modern music has been her work and recordings with such all-time jazz greats as Dizzy Gillespie and "The Yardbird", Charlie Parker. After working with the great jazz pianists Earl Hines as second pianist and vocalist, Sarah joined the tremendously influential Billy Eckstine band in 1944. This orchestra, the hot-bed of bop and modern music, contained such musicians as Gillespie, Parker, Miles Davis, Fats Navarro and Gene Ammons. Its impact is still being felt in such bands of the present day as Herman and Rich. Appearing at Lofy's Pavilion Room with Sarah Vaughan is funnyman Allan Drake. Long a favorite on such night shows as Johnny Carson and Steve Allen, Drake offers a zany counterbalance to Sarah's musical artistry. The Johnny Trudell band backs the acts and plays for dancing in the Pavilion Room before and after each show. Showtimes for Sarah Vaughan will be at 9:30 and 11:30 each evening Monday through Saturday. Coming in to Lofy's after Sarah Vaughan's stay are such super stars as Milton Berle (May 20-29), Rusty Warren (June 3-12) and Al Hirt (June 17-26).

'Little Murders'--the nightmare that our cities are becoming

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

"Little Murders," the nightmare our cities are becoming, was generally dismissed as too farfetched when it was written, but when seen here at the Vest Pocket it was noted how rapidly Jules Feiffer's fantasy was catching up with reality.

There was one consolation then. The locale of "Little Murders" was never mentioned; it was easy to dismiss it as some nightmare Never-Never Land. The new Feiffer film, however, is quite specific; the locale is New York, New York today and fantasy has edged so close to reality the two are almost inseparable.

"Little Murders" concerns the Newquist family, which lives in an apartment with bolts and locks and chains on the door because muggers and burglars roam the corridors. Their most faithful phone caller is a deep breathing masher. The snipers prowl the streets and their eldest son was shot down on the streets of the west side.

Far more horrible than the background, however, is the ultimate acceptance by the Newquists of this state of siege as inevitable. An aggressive daughter, Patsy, the play's most vital character, is shot down by a sniper while in the arms of her husband; the Newquists move on. A police detective cracks under the onslaught of hundreds of unsolved murders and departs in psychotic hysteria; the Newquists go on.

Their ultimate destination is Feiffer's most bizarre jest. "It's so good to see my family laughing again," Mrs. Newquist smiles at the end. What has made her family happy is the excitement of joining the savages—they have bought a rifle and joined the window marksmen.

Unfortunately, Feiffer's dramatic lack of discipline is still present. The terror of the ending, if terror there can be, must come from an assessment of what New York today can do to an average family. But because of Feiffer's love of parody, the Newquists are no average family.

Alfred, Patsy's husband—played by Elliott Gould in what seemingly is becoming the only way Gould can play, as the world's most abused figure—is a photographer who photographs excitement, the continued victim of beatings who daydreams while being pummeled, a man who tape records his parents' answers to psychological questions about himself because he can't remember anything before the age of 19.

What surprise is there that such a man would get a rifle and use it? Such a man, or any of Feiffer's other grotesques, could do anything. With such parodies on the screen, horror must take second place.

Alan Arkin directs in a wholly unsubtle way. Gould is almost catatonic; his wife, Patsy, is played by Marcia Rodd as a super-healthy Wonder Woman. Several cameo roles are offered equally unsubtly, including Donald Sutherland as a hippie minister, Lou Jacobi as a screaming, old-fashioned judge and Arkin himself as the disintegrating detective.

What keeps "Little Murders" from being a little masterpiece is Feiffer's use of much too much ink in his drawings. There are no fine shadings left.

'A Thousand Clowns' --bow to the box office

The Meadow Brook Theatre in Association with the Detroit City Theatre Association, presents "A Thousand Clowns," a comedy restaged in two acts by Herb Gardner, directed by artistic director Terence Kilburn, managing scenery Frank F. Bollinger, scenery by James D. Hansen, lighting by Katherine Ann Turco, costumes by Veronica Gustaff. At Oakland University through May 16 and at the Detroit Institute of Arts May 19-23 with the following cast: Howard Morton, Susan Thorne, Teddy Moniak, David Himes, Robert G. Denison, William LeMassena.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

The Meadow Brook Theatre, as previously mentioned, in an uncertain year with a smaller budget and no John Fernald, chose to seek the balm of a season selected with an eye on the box office.

Herb Gardner's "A Thousand Clowns" is probably the purest bow to purely commercial made yet at Meadow Brook but it is an unfitting bow to the "A Thousand Clowns" more accurately reflects Broadway today than do the classics.

By now artistic director Terence Kilburn can reflect that Meadow Brook has indeed proven itself which in turn may lead to more ambitious seasons once again. The current production, however, is not part of the body of successful evidence.

Gardner's comedy about a happy-go-lucky television writer who abandons the world of responsibility because he prefers his own private irresponsible Oz has been edited for Kilburn's own purposes which are not always Gardner's.

Murray Burns is threatened with the loss of guardianship of his 12-year-old nephew Nick by the New York City Bureau of Social Welfare, but even at this extreme moment he can not bring himself to return to writing the "Chuckles the Chipmunk Show" -- not even with the added incentive of a new girl friend, the psychologist half of the social worker team which has come to investigate him.

Some of Kilburn's cuts are not too damaging—he has robbed a scene of its ending to give Murray's brother a better exit line one scene later—but Kilburn cannot justify running the last two scenes together, eliminating the sense of despair which grips Murray when he realizes what his folly has cost him. This in turn obliterates the motivation for his reversal of character. The result is a more disappointing note in a somewhat heavy staging.

Part of the blame, however, must be shared with Howard Morton whose Murray is much too intense and sober for Gardner's ethereal character. Morton thinks too much; Murray's problem is that he thinks too little.

The supporting cast is better including Susan Thorne as the emotional social worker, Robert G. Denison as her stuffy partner, William LeMassena who brings the climax alive with his appearance as the children's TV star, and Teddy Moniak as the far too wise nephew.

Incidentally, this small cast play—with another, "The Fantasticks", to follow—on the heels of another small cast play "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" make one wonder what has happened to the Meadow Brook company. There are repeated new faces in each cast and the best companies get that way by working with each other repeatedly.

PTA shares projects completed during year

By BEVERLY McANNALLY

An interesting session of project sharing was reported by the Romulus Area PTA Council.

The group met last Tuesday at Cory Elementary School for the final meeting of the school year with all units represented.

Each unit had prepared a report about projects that had been undertaken during the year, advising other units about methods used and problems that had been encountered in carrying the projects through.

Mrs. Marjory Butler, president of Romulus Elementary School PTA reported the unit had presented the first Founder's Day Dinner and that it had been well attended. She also reported a school picture project and a spring fair, the first in many years. All projects were successful, she said.

Mrs. Pat McDonnell, secretary from Mt. Pleasant Elementary school, told about a PTA dinner that was presented to the teachers on the evening of their open house, she also reported a dental care program, begun this year, and a fair that will help finance a second day of clinic time for the children of the school.

Mrs. Carole Bales, president of Merriman Elementary School PTA, told about fund raising projects. School picture sales, a concert and bazaar, sweat shirt sale and spring fair, scheduled for Saturday, May 15, will provide funds for kitchen equipment and library books.

Service projects include Helping Hand child assistance and Saturday recreation programs; Merriman's custodian Paul Govenky donates his time to provide the supervision.

Mrs. Bales also reported that a picnic was planned before the end of school that will feature a mother against teacher softball game. A monthly calendar and newsletter and successful drug seminar rounded out the school year of PTA activity.

Mrs. Donna Lee Zavitz, president of Hayti Elementary School PTA, told of that unit's activities to support the award winning Dental Care Program. Among the projects reported were: weekly hot lunches, Get Acquainted dinner, Founder's Day dinner, purchases of audio visual equipment for school use, a proposed music scholarship award.

She also told of a gala Christmas breakfast that is traditionally the PTA's gift to the teaching staff. A spring fair and school picnic climax the group's year of activity.

Mrs. Connie Eberline, secretary for Harrison Elementary school PTA, reported about its fair, slated for Saturday, May 15. She said the group had also given the children a puppet show, a Christmas party, a kindergarten Halloween party and had sponsored a sweat shirt sale, presented the first annual Dad's Night, an event organized and carried out by the fathers. They have also sponsored cup cake sales, and are planning an outing for the safety boys. They too are sponsoring a dental care program this year.

Mrs. William Persondek, president of Gordonier PTA, told about a well-attended performance by an Indian group and a Founder's Day dinner. The group sold identification tags and bracelets and sweat shirts, they also had a rummage sale. Service projects included purchases of a flag and staff, a camera for school use and a movie planned for the last day of school.

Mrs. Robbin Kring, president of Cory PTA, explained its policy of holding meetings during the morning rather than evenings. Mrs. Kring felt that attendance had been as good if not better than evening meetings had been.

She said her group had served hot lunches and presented a catered Founder's Day Dinner. They also had a Learning Festival that featured educational games for sale. They assisted with a Thanksgiving dinner for the children and a Christmas party.

Other projects have been completion of the Cory Courtyard and the Peace Corps partnership school program. The PTA is also matching funds with the school district to carpet kindergarten rooms and has purchased a ceramic kiln for school use. On May 15 it will hold a spring fair with a carousel theme.

Perry Grey, president of Beverly Elementary School PTA, reported that his group had presented a Get Acquainted luncheon for their teachers at the beginning of the school year, they held a carnival and a Founder's Day dinner that was attended by representatives of other PTA units.

He also told of a science fair and an afterschool recreation program that provides two afternoons of recreation aimed at girls interested and two afternoons for boys each week.

The PTA helps defray costs of supervision. At Christmas each class was given $15 to purchase rainy day games. give the children a full week of fun at church camp near grade camping trip that will Lapeer.

We helped Clark Brown retire on a penny.

The request seemed simple enough. One of Mr. Brown's fellow executives wanted a special plaque with a 1927 penny and a 1971 penny to commemorate Mr. Brown's 43 years of company service.

The 1927 penny was easy. But the 1971 penny was another matter. When coin dealers couldn't help, he called on his friend and banker, Irv Wallace, NBD's Belleville manager.

Irv learned that no 1971 coins would be circulated until all the 1970 coins had been put out by the mint.

Then he decided to try NBD's

Money Museum. They called the Director of Public Relations for the Philadelphia Mint, who responded by forwarding a penny straight from production.

The Money Museum passed it on to Irv Wallace, who in turn passed it to his friend, who in turn put it on the plaque and presented it to Clark Brown.

Which just goes to show, that it doesn't take much to start all the wheels turning at NBD.

The bank to see is NBD. National Bank of Detroit.

Anti-poverty program approved by county

By JOE CHAREST

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners concurred Monday in the approval of the Communities United for Action Committee (CUFA) as the new poverty agency for eight locations in Wayne County, including Inkster, Romulus and Sumpter Township.

The concurrence came after a recommendation was passed at a public hearing held last week by the Committee on Economic Opportunity, a commission committee.

CUFA, a non-profit private corporation, is now in the process of organizing prior to seeking federal approval as an Office of Economic Opportunity agency eligible for federal funding.

The commissioners also approved Board Chairman Robert FitzPatrick's nominations of four commissioners to represent Wayne County on the CUFA board.

They are Commissioners Roscoe L. Bobo (D-18th Dist.), William L. Dunbar (D-10th Dist.), John Lesinski (D-20th Dist.) and John N. Sabo, Jr. (D-24th Dist.) All four commissioners represents areas to be affected by the new organization.

Lesinski represents part of Inkster and Sabo's district includes Romulus and Sumpter Township.

The commissioners will sit on a board comprised of 12 public officials (the eight others are the mayor's and supervisor of the cities and township involved), 16 representatives of the poor, and eight members from private interest groups, such as civic organizations and businesses.

Discontinuance of an earlier OEO program due to federal withdrawal of funds left suburban Detroit cities without poverty organizations. Federal officials cited a lack of direction in programs and leadership as their reasons for withdrawing support. This new program was designed to conform to all OEO standards and will be carefully watched by the Board of Commissioners.

Under the federal guidelines, it will be the responsibility of the CUFA Corporation to produce the local resources which will be matched by federal funds. Present requirements are that local organizations provide 20 percent of the total cost of all projects.

CUFA is hoping for federal recognition by mid-June.

For further information contact the Romulus Building Department at 941-0666.

who resides at 330 E. Huron River Dr. ordered the boys away and threatened to call the police.

Alford, who is a retired Detroit police officer and former manager of the Belvil Community Hospital prior to its present administrative staff, replied that he was called by neighbors in the area.

When he arrived the boys were cutting up the shrubbery. He said that one of the adults wanted to know who he was. When he identified himself, he was told to get out or "get his head knocked off"

Alford who is the father of Dr. E.S. Alford, M.D., founder of the Belvil Community Hospital, reported that the land area in question is owned by Dr. Alford and a tenant, who plans on opening a clothing store in the building at 201 South St. proposes to use the area as a parking lot.

Alford said the land owned by his son is now being used for Little League Baseball and the land near where the youngsters wanted to clean and play catch is not available.

Drill permits stopped until cave-ins studied

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources has ordered a geological study of the effects of salt mining near the Detroit River following a cave-in that left a 30-foot-deep crater.

The cave-in, 200 feet across, happened Jan. 9 on a six-acre site owned by the BASF Wyandotte Chemical Corp. on Grasse Isle, downriver from Detroit.

State geologists said any future cave-ins possibly could cause injuries, damage property, or spread salt to the river.

Robert Ives, geologist for the Department of Natural Resources, said that his office would not issue Wyandotte another permit for another drill site until a study of the area is made.

"There are limits to this kind of drilling and Wyandotte Chemical knew what they were. They just moved too much salt out of there, that's all," he said.

Three legislators from the area said they believed no permit should be issued until a study by the outside consultant is made. However, they said that the site had been deserted for several years before the cave-in and said the company has been developing new techniques of avoiding cave-ins.

The legislators include Sen. John E. McCauley, D-

Wyandotte; Rep. John J. Anderson, D-Southgate, and William R. Copeland, D-Wyandotte.

A company spokesman declined any immediate comment. Kenneth Landis, a retired University of Michigan geologist, is scheduled to direct the study.

"ALL ABOUT BIRDS" — Pamela Ritchey, 7, a second grader at the Gordonier Elementary School, Romulus, displays her entry "All About Birds" in the school's annual Science Fair held last Friday. Second grade class entries were supervised by teacher Mrs. Virginia Cloud. The annual event was well attended.

Sumpter School sets meet

The Sumpter Elementary School will hold its annual Pancake Supper from 5 to 7 p.m., tomorrow (Thursday), at the school.

The pancake supper marks the school's biggest money-raising event of the year. An invitation to treat the family to a dinner and assist the school has been extended.

Tickets are now available and are being sold by the fifth and sixth grade students. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children. Tickets will also be available at the school cafeteria.

Marionettes captivate audience

The students and teachers at Elwell Elementary School were given the opportunity last Thursday to take a "Journey Beyond the Moon."

They boarded an imaginary spaceship and blasted off with Ed Johnson's marionettes. Johnson, a former regular on television's "Milky Movie Party," was described as "fabulous" and captivated the Elwell youngsters with his puppetry.

Diabetes camping announced

Michigan's summer camp for youngsters with diabetes, Camp Midicha, will be open for two ten-day sessions in 1971.

Boys and girls from ages eight through sixteen may attend either or both periods from July 11 through 21 and July 21 through 31.

Camp Midicha is sponsored by the Michigan Diabetes Association, a United Fund agency, and is located near Oxford, about forty miles north of Detroit.

The Association provides camperships when the family cannot afford the fee of $65 per session. No youngster is ever turned away for lack of finances.

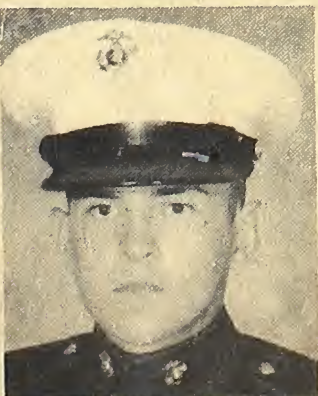

Camp applications and brochures may be obtained by writing to the Michigan Diabetes Association, 6131 West Outer Dr., Detroit, 48235. Early registration is advised to assure the youngster a place at camp this summer.

League try scheduled

Wojcie also reported that there is still need for umpires and managers. Interested persons can call 697-0396 or 697-0556.

Joggers Association's two-mile event held in Boston. Only physicians participated in the event.

Jac's fined

The fine was assessed on a hearing before a commission examiner held at the Lincoln Park offices of the commission on April 20.

The firm was given until May 31 to pay the fine.

Design contract awarded for jail renovation

Planning of the $1.5 million renovation of the Wayne County Jail which was ordered by the County Board of Commissioners is underway following award of a design contract for the project by the County Board of Auditors.

The design contract was awarded to the Shorter-Germany Organization, a bi-racial architectural-engineering firm located in Detroit.

A complete overhaul of the plumbing, ventilating and electrical systems in the old section of the jail will be done to improve living conditions for the prisoners.

The Board of Commissioners earmarked $1.5 million in last year's county budget for the project, but the start of work was stalled for more than a year by the severe overcrowding at the jail.

Shorter-Germany headed a list of three firms which was established by a county interview board. The contract negotiated with the firm provides that its fee will consist of 8.5 percent of the cost of the project.

This means that if the total cost of the renovations amounts to the full $1.5 million allocated by the Board of Commissioners, Shorter-Germany will receive $127,500. If the project costs less, the design firm will receive proportionately less. County Buildings Superintendent Edward J. Bresnahan said design is expected to be completed this summer in time for the letting of contracts for the actual renovations by September.

After lengthy negotiations, the City of Detroit recently agreed to allow the county to transfer some 150 jail prisoners to the Detroit House of Correction (DeHoCo) to clear the way for the renovations at the jail.

The Board of Commissioners appropriated $470,000 on April 2 to cover the cost of fencing in two barracks at DeHoCo and to hire 47 additional Sheriff's deputies to guard the compound and transport the prisoners between the city prison near Plymouth and the downtown courts. Preparations for the transfer are expected to be completed by about Aug. 1.

The jail, designed for about 1,200 prisoners, have housed as many as 1,550 in recent years. Various programs initiated by the Board of Commissioners and the courts have reduced the jail population to slightly over 1,300 in recent months.

However, new State criteria on square feet per prisoner, adopted since the jail was opened in 1929 and expanded in 1963, require that the population be reduced to some 850 prisoners.

"The renovation project will not eliminate the excess population problem, but it will make the jail a lot more livable for the prisoners while we continue to work on the population problem," observed Commissioner John Lesinski, of Dearborn, D-

District 20, chairman of the Planning and Capitol Improvement Committee of the County Board.

In an effort to solve the population problem, the Board of Commissioners has before it preliminary plans for a 500-bed medium security jail facility.

At the direction of the Board of Commissioners, county lawyers are drafting a ballot proposition asking the voters to approve millage for a county building program, with a new jail facility getting top priority. The proposition would be submitted to the voters at the next county-wide special election or in next year's regular election. No price tag has been placed on the proposal yet.

President of the firm is O. Germany; Sidney E. Shorter is Executive Vice President.

"The Shorter-Germany Organization brings exceptional talents to the design of this project," said Leonard D. Proctor, chairman of the County Board of Auditors after the Auditors formally awarded the contract.

Germany, a registered mechanical engineer in several states, has handled numerous architectural design and construction planning assignments for private industry and various government and urban renewal agencies. He is a former president of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers.

Shorter, a black civil and structural engineer, is an authority on building codes with 15 years experience working for the City of Detroit. He is serving as a structural and codes consultant to the Construction System Program, Detroit Board of Education, and is also an adjunct professor of engineering at the University of Michigan.

Acting as an associate consultant for Shorter-Germany on the renovation project is Ernest Wotton, an internationally recognized illuminating engineer from Great Britain, who will assist the firm in determining lighting needs for the jail.

The project calls for renovation of the sanitary, storm water, building, sewer, water, ventilation, electrical, and domestic and fire water systems.

Belleville nine wins two out of three

By DANN BARKUME
Sports Writer

Belleville's baseball Tigers are beginning to find the range this year as they took two out of three decisions in prep action last week. Belleville disposed of Livonia Bentley 5-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Vern Gowan. Allen Park spoiled the Tigers' attempt for a perfect week by taking a 4-2 decision, but Belleville bounced back to nip Wayne 4-2 to close out the week's action.

Gowan put on a stellar pitching performance in shutting out Bentley. He allowed only two hits, walked none and struck out 10. Gowan struck out the last batter in Bentley's half of the fifth inning, and went on to strike out the last seven men to face him. Belleville got a quick run in the first inning, and added another in the third, in the fifth inning Steve Billings slammed a home run with two mates aboard to ice the victory for Gowan. Mike Dancer also contributed with the bat, going two for three at the plate.

Dave Billings took over the mound chores against Allen Park and got into trouble in the first inning. Walks and errors hurt Belleville's chances of overtaking Allen Park as the Tigers were unable to recover after being down early in the contest. Dan Smith helped Belleville with his bat, going two for three and Steve Billings cracked a ground rule double, knocking in a run. Dave Billings has control problems, though he walked only four, three of the hitters given free passes, wound up crossing the plate. Coach Vitold Kaminskis said that the walks and errors and lack of hitting cost Belleville the game.

Belleville next engaged Wayne Memorial in a game that could have been called anything but a hitter's duel. Wayne collected four hits and Belleville two, but unearned runs were enough for Belleville to take the victory. Junior Steve Theodore got his first pitching start of the 1971 campaign and pitched a strong game for six innings. Theodore was lifted in the sixth in favor of Steve Billings who walked the only man he faced. Gowan then came in and retired the side, getting credit for a save while Theodore earned himself a win.

Kaminskis said that it was a game of giveaways, with both teams giving up unearned runs by way of errors. Belleville scored all four runs in the fifth inning, yet were only credited with one hit during the frame. Ed Branam singled with the bases jammed in the fifth to score two, walks and a hit batsman accounted for the other two tallies.

Belleville also had the bases loaded in the first and third innings, but the Tigers couldn't make the best of either opportunity.

Belleville is currently standing with a 2-4 overall record and sits at 1-3 in Suburban Six competition. The Tigers travel to Trenton before playing host to Plymouth in league action this week.

Eagle thinclads are having problems

Romulus' track team missed the Ecorse Relays because they missed the bus.

Track coach Jesse Meriweather said that the bus that was scheduled to take members of the team to the Ecorse Relays last Saturday was supposed to leave the school at 8:30 a.m. Several key performers were among the missing and Meriweather left with only 10 thinclads in the bus, most of them freshmen and sophomores. Consequently, Romulus did not win any points at the Relays.

The Eagles track problems went on earlier in the week as well as the Romulus thinclads dropped track decisions to Wayne Memorial and Ecorse. Meriweather is concerned over the lack of initiative shown by some members of the team. "They want to run in the meets, but they don't want to practice at all. You're not going to go anywhere in track unless you work at it every day, not just when there is a meet scheduled," he said.

Meriweather added that the program has to be built up, all the way down to the elementary school level. "This is my first year as track coach here," Meriweather said. "We get freshmen and sophomores, but the upper classmen don't seem to want to come out, some of our best athletes are walking the halls of the school and not participating in the athletic program at all."

yard dash with a time of 10.7 Darryl Gooden finished second in the shot put event with a toss of 44 feet and Marvin Williams took the bronze medal with a toss of 32 feet. Hamilton also finished second in the 220 yard dash with a time of 23.7.

In the Ecorse dual meet, Ron Buckley won the high jump event with a leap of 5 feet six inches. George Douglas finished second in the long jump with a leap of 22 feet and David Bell captured second place in the high hurdles with a time of 16.5 and finished third in the low hurdles, running the course in 22.7.

In the Ecorse dual meet action, Ron Buckley finished first in the long jump with a leap of 2 feet six inches. Marvin Williams captured the gold medal in the shot put with a toss of 44 feet three inches and Darryl Gooden placed second with a mark of 42 feet. David Bell captured first places in both the high and low hurdle events. His high hurdle time was 17.0 and he ran through the lows in 22.5.

Though Romulus' leaders once again came through with good performances, the Eagles dropped both encounters by a wide margin.

Romulus will compete in the Western Wayne Relays before meeting Twin Valley Conference foe River Rouge on Thursday. The Eagles are also scheduled to compete in the Shafer Relays next weekend.

Meriweather was uncertain as to whether or not Romulus would actually take part in the Western Wayne event, saying, "I want to hear what the guys have to say about missing that bus before I say we are going to the Western Wayne meet or not."

Pettus leads Tigers to dual meet win

Belleville track coach Ken Head is looking forward to the warmer weather and is hoping that Mother Nature becomes benevolent with balmy temperatures in the near future. Head feels that his team will improve once the temperatures get out of the 40's and 50's and start climbing near the 70 degree mark. "With the warmer weather, the times have got to come down," Head said. "We are getting ready for some of the big meets still on our schedule. Up to now we have gotten a few bad breaks and the cold weather has hurt us, but right now you could say that we are due for some good times."

Head's predictions weren't too far off the mark last week as the Tiger thinclads started the week off by defeating Riverview 65-51 in dual meet action. Garrade Pettus continues with his stellar performances as he took first place honors in the high jump, the long jump and the high hurdles. Tony Ogletree continued hot on Pettus' trail, winning the low hurdles, finishing second in the high jump and running a leg on the victorious 880 yard relay team.

Phil Combs came through with another strong performance winning the 880 yard run. Ron Clark finished first in the two-mile event and Al Vandecar took the gold medal for the 440 yard run. Dave Lorentson wrapped up first place in the 220 yard event.

Belleville then settled down for a dual meet with Livonia Bentley. A close finish would have been appreciated by both schools, but Bentley squeaked out a 59-23-58 1-3 victory over the Tigers.

Pettus continued to shine, winning the long jump, high jump, high hurdles and low hurdles.

Ogletree was right behind Pettus, finishing second in the high jump, low hurdles and long jump.

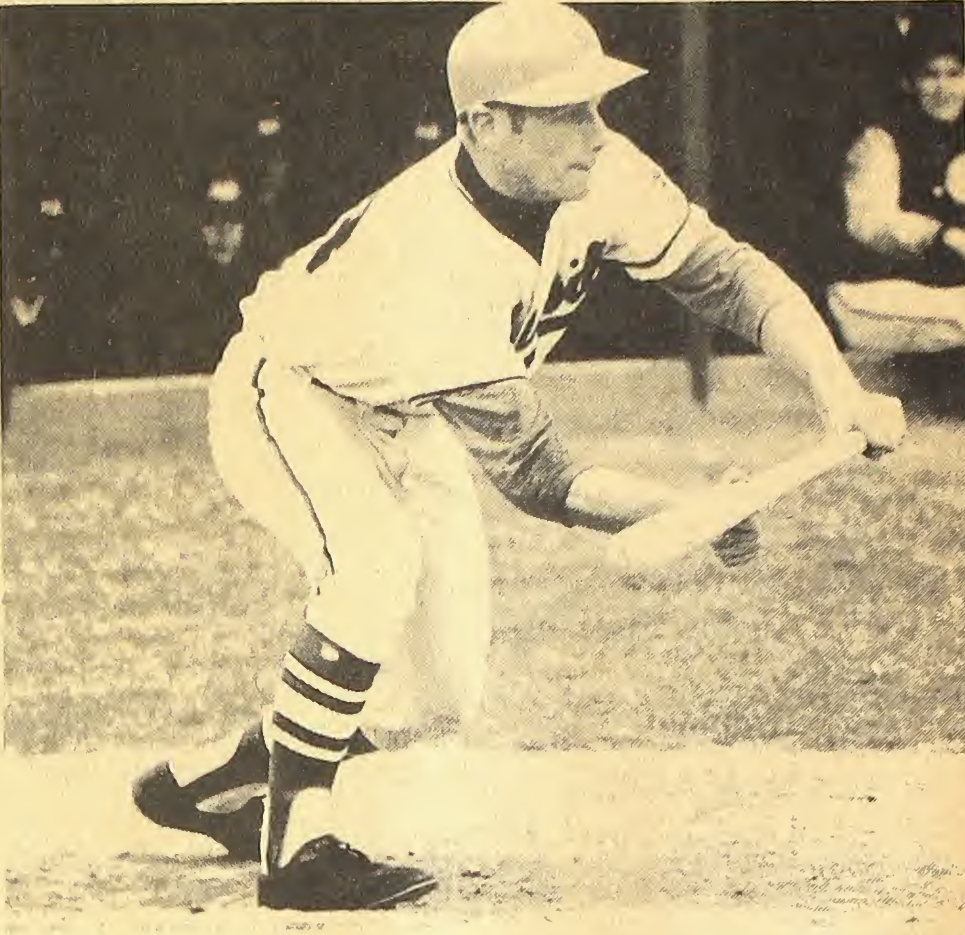

Phil Combs won the 880 yard run again and Ron Clark took honors in the mile. John Cicotte took the gold medal in the two-mile run.

At Albion last weekend, Belleville finished third in Class One, behind Lansing Eastern (51), Kalamazoo Central (35) earned second place and Belleville checked in with a score of 31. A total of 11 teams competed in Class One.

Joe Cross wrapped up a gold medal in the two-mile event, finishing with a mark of 9:59.1. Pettus continued to be hot, winning the high hurdles with a mark of 15.6, the low hurdles in 21.4, the long jump with a leap of 22 feet seven inches and a fourth place finish in the high jump.

Combs once again took first place in the 880 and Belleville's mile relay team took first in that event. Combs is joined on the relay team by Vandecar, Lowenstein and Arnold McCurdy.

Belleville's dual meet record currently stands at 2-2. On tap for this week are the Western Wayne Relays and a dual meet with Allen Park. Belleville is the host school for the Western Wayne Relay event.

HERE COMES A BUNT — Larry Fix attempts to cross up the opposition with an unexpected bunt in baseball action against Allen Park last week. Fix seems determined to drop one successfully, as he concentrates only on the pitch. The Tigers weren't nearly as successful, they dropped a 4-2 decision to visiting Allen Park.

Huron bounces back after loss to Romulus

Huron's Chiefs couldn't put it all together against Romulus last week and dropped a 6-4 decision, as they had to compete against the winning fast ball of Leighton Ballard. The Chiefs weren't shaken, however, as they came back to pound Blissfield by a score of 14-7.

Huron accounted for three four run innings and held a 6-1 advantage after the second frame.

Glen Dregansky pounded out a big home run with two mates aboard in the first inning. Jamie Hinojosa followed with a solo blast in the second and Jack Garcia smacked another three-run poke in the fifth inning.

Ron Thompson scattered five hits on his way to picking up a victory. Thompson walked four, struck out four and hit one. Blissfield's Mike Santiago was tagged with the loss. Santiago lasted 1-3 innings before being knocked out of the box, he was the first of three Blissfield pitchers.

Butch Suemnick went three for three, collecting two doubles and a single and one walk. Suemnick is clubbing the ball at a .555 pace and looms as a formidable opponent to any pitcher he faces. Suemnick has ripped six doubles so far this season.

Dregansky also was a big man with the bat as he went two for three collecting a single along with his round trip blast. Hinojosa also looked good collecting a single along with his home run in four trips to the plate.

The win brought Huron's league record to 2-5 for the season.

In the loss to Romulus, the Chiefs collected three runs in the first inning but were unable to come back after that. Ballard struck out 13 enroute to his victory. Hinojosa was the big man with the bat as he clubbed a double with two mates aboard in the first frame to collect two RBIs.

Coach Ron Smith is pleased with his team's development so far this season. "A lot of people thought we were going to be pushovers this season," Smith said. "But we have proven them wrong, if we can get our defense a little tighter, we will be in good shape. Right now I think we can give almost anybody a battle and the big score against Blissfield indicates that we have some offensive power. Those four errors hurt though.

Huron had 14 runs on 11 hits and committed four errors. Blissfield collected seven runs on five hits and also had four miscues.

The Chiefs are set for three more encounters this week, facing Mason before coming home to host league foe Jefferson. Powerhouse Catholic Central is on tap for a Friday contest.

Rain hampers Romulus' plans

"We didn't play a good game, and we were fortunate to win."

So said Lowell Johnson after his Romulus Eagles slipped past the Chiefs of Huron by a score of 6-4 in non-league baseball action last week. Another game scheduled with Hamtramck was postponed due to poor weather conditions and Romulus closed out the week with one victory in as many starts, bringing their season record to 6-1.

Leighton Ballard tossed a four hitter but four Romulus errors proved costly as the Chiefs jumped to a three-run advantage in the first inning. Ballard then settled down until the last inning when he was touched for another tally.

He fanned 13 Huron batsmen enroute to his fourth victory in five starts.

Huron was caught a couple of times with mental mistakes and Romulus capitalized for a couple of big runs that helped pull the game out of the fire. Because of Ballard's speed Huron resorted to punching the ball and the Romulus defense seemed crossed up. "Ballard pitched well enough to win" Johnson said. "They (Huron) just stuck out their bats and got some lucky hits off of us."

It was the second straight game where the Eagles were victimized by defensive mistakes resulting in errors. Johnson is concerned, as the You've heard of the "jet set" - that elite group of V.I.P.s who can jet around the world to enjoy the dulca vita?

Now comes the "pro set", which is causing many of the prep coaches a lot of headaches.

The "pro set" is one set of games, usually longer than the traditional set, in which a contestant must win eight games by no less than two.

"During a pro set type of contest you'll have one longer game, but shorter matches," explained Donald Aldrich who replaced Dick Davey as the head tennis coach at Westland John Glenn this season.

"I think we are the only league in the area that is trying this innovation on the high school level. The Northwest Suburban League is using the new method because of the time element involved."

"When we had two equally matched tennis players their game could last for three hours and obviously that could cause problems," said the rookie coach.

You'd think that Aldrich would be an avid advocate of the new method, but he isn't - he would rather stick to the longer traditional method of playing the best of three sets to decide the match.

Why?

"I would prefer the kids get as much tennis experience as possible. With the traditional method of the best of three, the players were getting more playing time in," he explained.

The 28-year-old graduate of Flint Northern who holds a B.A. in education from Eastern Michigan University and a masters in administration will receive his education specialist degree this summer.

It's his first head coaching job and he finds it challenging. Aldrich pinpointed the reason why some method to cut tennis' playing time on the high school level was needed: "Baseball teams and tennis squads usually shared the school bus when travelling."

"Since a baseball game would take about two hours and a tennis meet sometimes went 2 1/2 and 3 hours, something had to be done," he said. He quickly pointed out - "I don't think this will actually solve the problem."

Aldrich had another gripe that he wasn't afraid to vent in the press: the problem of coaches stacking their lineups.

"It's pitiful. A lot of coaches manipulate their talent so that, for example, if he knows I have a strong No. 1 singles, he throws his second or third singles against him and shoves his best player against a weaker one of mine so he can win a point."

Aldrich would like to see something done about stopping this unethical practice.

"One of the last sports left with honor is tennis. It's a gentlemen's sport," Aldrich said. "Please don't misunderstand me - I'm not knocking the other sports like football and baseball and basketball, but tennis is a 'gentlemen's' game."

"But a lot of high school coaches are playing it on a 'win at all costs' basis as do the pros - 'be unethical, but just win' and I don't believe in that philosophy at all."

"I feel coaches should play their men by their ability and quit stacking lineups."

From the mail box

Dear Sir,

I read with interest your column concerning the All-Area Track Meet. Your praise for Jim Thompson and the Wayne Jaycees is warranted. However, your criticism of other Jaycee Chapters is off base.

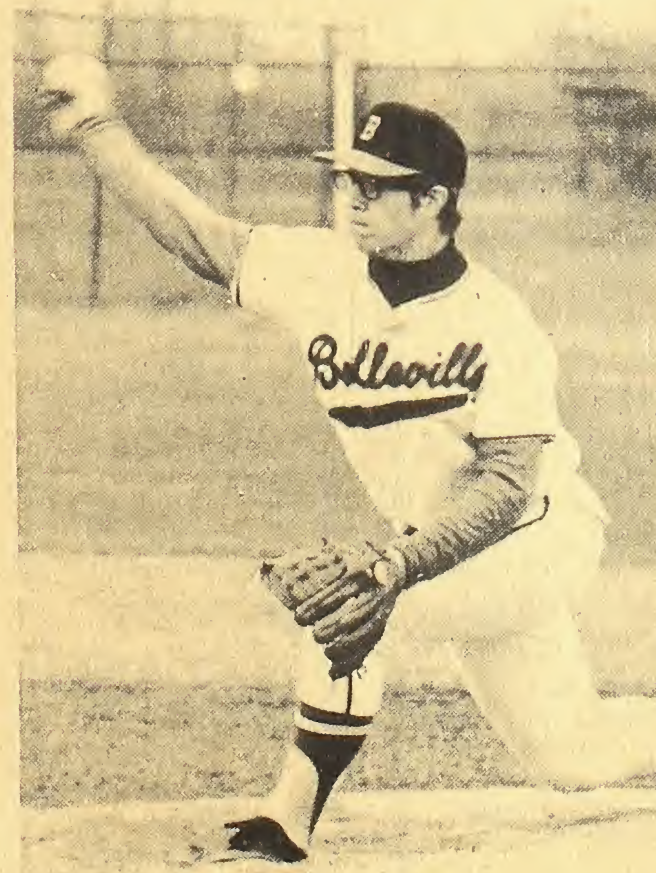

The Westland Jaycees do NOT participate in the All-Area Track Meet. Moreover, we've never been invited. In view of this, I was quite surprised to see you ask "Where are the other Jaycee Chapters?"

We are not in hibernation. We do offer a large Track and Field Program to the youngsters of our city. Junior Champ. Junior Champ is available to all youngsters, boys and girls, age 8-18. Not just the outstanding area athletes. Last year, 450 boys and girls participated.

We'll be running Junior Champ again this year in June. Once again, it'll be held at John Glenn High School. We'll give you the details. You might want to take a look at it.

Then, perhaps, you'll be able to report, "Where the other Jaycee Chapters are."

Yours Truly,
Russ Lampinen, President
Westland Jaycees

HERE'S THE PITCH — Belleville's Steve Billings puts everything he has into a pitch in prep baseball action against Allen Park last week. Billings is carrying much of the hopes for the Tigers this year and coach Vitold Kaminskis is depending heavily on the Tiger mound ace to deliver when the going gets tough. Belleville will meet some tough opponents in the Suburban Six conference as they go through the 1971 baseball campaign.

Huron runners miss in try for upset

Huron's thinclads have been known as a running team this year and have been extremely weak in the field events. That fact was evidenced last week again when the Chiefs went against Blissfield in Huron League track action. Blissfield held a commanding 32-4 lead at the end of the field events, but Huron came on strong in the track events and almost pulled the meet out of the fire. The Chiefs dropped their second dual meet of the season 63-54 to bring their overall record to 3-2.

A meet with Ida, scheduled for last Friday had to be postponed because the Ida thinclads had a previous engagement. The meet has been rescheduled for May 24 at Huron.

The Chiefs started their surge early in the track events by taking the 880 yard relay in a time of 1:39.7. Ed Fakhaury then won the half-mile run in a time of 2:17.1 and John Petri contributed with a second place finish in the high hurdles.

Paul Ingle took the gold medal in the mile, completing the course in a time of 4:57.6 and Dave Edge nosed out the competition in the 100 yard dash in a time of 10.7, teammate Roger Miles was right behind, finishing second with a time of 10.8.

Dan Clark ran the 440 in 54.6 good for first place in the event and Bill Rouse grabbed second place with a time of 56.5.

In the low hurdle event, Dave Edge was again the best as he ran through the course in 22.3 seconds, John Petri grabbed third place in the event.

Coach Keith Reed saw his hopes for a victory go down the drain when Blissfield slammed the two mile run. Reed needed victories in almost every event to pull ahead of the Blissfield squad, who had built up a commanding lead during the field events. Blissfield won the two-mile in 10:47.

Huron didn't give up, however, and came right back to slam the 220 yard dash. Dan Clark led the field in 24.9 and was followed by Dave Edge who ran in 25.0. Roger Miles pulled up third, with a time of 25.1.

Huron couldn't get used to the soft Blissfield track and their problems showed up in the mile relay, Blissfield ran going away in a time of 3:50.8. Reed feels that his running events are strong enough to give anybody competition, but he readily admits that his extreme weakness in the field events leaves him in a giant hole once the track events get started. "We almost have to win every event to go anywhere after losing so badly in the field events," Reed said. "It's a lot of pressure on the runners, but they have been doing a fine job so far."

With the season slowly drawing to a close, Reed has his eyes on the Regional meet, scheduled for May 15 at Belleville. Before the state competition begins, however, Reed will have his hands full with some pretty stiff competition. He faces Flat Rock, Catholic Central this week, with the Mason Invitational on tap for the weekend. Next week, the Chiefs will close out the regular season campaign with a home meet against Jefferson, before traveling to Tecumseh.

SOMETHING'S MISSING — Belleville's second baseman, Steve Billings, was ready to put the tag on an Allen Park baserunner, but he forgot the ball. That all important object can be seen at Billings' feet. The result, rather than an out was the advance by Allen Park. The weather was a bit chilly, but the Tigers hope to warm things up as they get into the heart of the 1971 baseball schedule.

Belleville wins three matches

Belleville High School's varsity golf squad took three matches in a row in action last week. The Tiger golfers took matches from Livonia Bentley, Willow Run and Allen Park in succession.

Craig Barnett earned medalist honors in the first two matches and Steve Burwell took the medalist title in the Allen Park meet.

Belleville meets Trenton before taking part in a joint meeting with Plymouth and Allen Park at home on Thursday.

Eagle netters keep improving

Zane Kuryliw, tennis coach at Romulus, admits that he doesn't have much in the way of depth or experience when it comes to analyzing this year's tennis squad. However, under the watchful eye of Kuryliw, the Eagles have steadily progressed and lost two matches last week by close margins. "They have been improving," Kuryliw said, "I know we are going to win some matches this year."

A scheduled meet with Wayne last week was cancelled due to poor weather conditions. The match has been rescheduled for May 12.

Romulus looks strong in the singles competition, but a number of freshmen with no experience makes them weak in doubles. Romulus lost to River Rouge and Inkster last week by identical scores of 4-3. Third singles, Glen Hayes was unable to overtake a determined Terrence Mitchell from River Rouge. Hayes took the second set 6-2 but dropped the first 8-10 and the third 2-6, giving the match to Mitchell. Romulus currently standing at 0-6 has a busy schedule this week with four matches on tap. The Eagles face Ecorse, Hamtramck, in a rescheduled meeting, River Rouge and Flat Rock.

Complete fishing book available from state

One of the most complete books ever published on Michigan fishing is now ready for distribution, William T. McGraw, director, Michigan Tourist Council, announced Monday.

A year in preparation, the new 36-page publication, "Fishing in Michigan," was produced by the Michigan Tourist Council in cooperation with the Fisheries Division, Department of Natural Resources.

"Fishing has become an increasingly important factor in bringing more out of state visitors to Michigan as well as encouraging state residents to spend more leisure time in recreational travel," McGraw said.

"As an example," he pointed out, "a recent report to the Department of Natural Resources indicated that Coho fishing alone prompted more than $8 million spending on that sport in 1970."

Illustrated with full color photos, the book describes the how, when and where of Michigan fishing. Eleven pages are devoted to descriptions of Michigan's 20 game fish, including physical characteristics, habits and habitats. How to catch 'em instructions are provided with each individual fish description, along with tips on cooking. An entire section of the book is devoted to recipes.

For those who have never before tried their luck on this age-old sport, instructions on bait and tackle and how best to use them is included.

On safety's side, one page of the book contains Great Lakes safe-boating information as well as illustrations showing official U.S. Coast Guard traffic signals and warning flags.

From stream and inland lake fishing, angling through the ice to dipping for spring smelt, Michigan's fishing scene is completely covered, according to McGraw.

Copies of the publication, "Fishing in Michigan," are available without charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, 48926.

Rain hampers Romulus

Eagles head into the tough Twin Valley conference schedule next week and a tight defense is necessary for success in such a balanced league. "We had good form early in the season its just a question of getting it back," Johnson added.

Romulus heads into league action this week with games on Monday and Thursday the Eagles will open the league campaign by playing host to Willow Run and will then hit the road to meet River Rouge on Thursday.

Old Car Festival attracts families

GETTING AWAY for several days recently, the Don Bluhms and son, Ron, and Joe and Bonnie Moon and son, Joey, motored to Nashville to attend the Music City Old Car Festival. Don was at the helm of a 1938 La Salle coupe for the trip down.

While in Tennessee the group met with Guy and Faith (Pierman) Ransom who'd come from Fort Campbell, Kentucky for the event. Together they attended the Grand Old Oprey which was followed by the Old Car Awards Banquet at which Johnnie Cash and his wife, June Carter, presided.

Lockrows visit Garden Center

MR. AND MRS. Virgil Lockrow of Belleville visited Rip Van Winkle Gardens, the "English Garden in a Tropical Setting," at Jefferson Island, between Lafayette and New Iberia, Louisiana, Wednesday, April 21.

With twenty acres of rolling woodland in a tropical paradise, featuring huge live oaks garlanded with Spanish Moss, brilliant Azaleas, formal and semi-formal gardens of magnificent camellias, and multitudes of flowering shrubs together with many beds of the old familiar garden annuals, all carefully landscaped in the English manner, Rip Van Winkle Gardens is enchanting at all seasons.

There is an Oriental Garden, a Spanish Terraced Garden with fountains, a Rock Garden, a Rose Garden, an Orchid House, a Camellia House, working greenhouses, and tropical pools all joined by interesting paths through the natural woodland. It is a feast for the eyes and a treat for the botanist. "An enchanting experience in the tradition of English gardening" is this tropical show place of the South.

Browns feted at housewarming

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES — about 60 in all — gathered recently for a housewarming honoring George and Sandy Brown who are now ensconced in their new home at 42055 McBride Street, Belleville. Having moved there from Elwell Road, the young couple and their four children, Judy, George, Robbie, and David, were presented with a number of gifts as well as money.

Having a hand in the pot-luck dinner were the Browns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straub (Shirley bringing a specially-decorated cake with a little plastic house atop and the inscription "Brown's Dream House") and the senior George Browns from Wayne. Also helping out were the Robert Brown family of Ypsilanti, the Clinton Brown family of Belleville, the Tim Brown family of Wayne, and Dawn Bruder.

Twin bill at Ferguson's

THE FERGUSON TWINS — Shawn and Sheri — who made their debut May 3, 1967, were the center of attention Sunday as their parents, the Roger Fergusons, entertained in honor of their fourth birthdays.

Their grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Shephard, was a guest for dinner and brought along one of her artistic creations — a special birthday cake. Grandpa Shephard was unable to attend since he re-entered Harper Hospital Friday for further heart tests.

Then in the afternoon the twins' great-uncle and aunt, the Richard Jahnckes, arrived from Flint; their uncle Brian returned from his Boy Scout canoe trip on the Manistee River; Jim and Pat Shephard dropped in; and members of the Ferguson clan put in an appearance — Mr. and Mrs. Fay Fergusons (the honorees' grandparents); Jim and Marie Dozer from Ann Arbor; the Bob Fergusons with Donna and Michael; and Richard Ferguson and daughter, Terry.

Several games were planned for the younger set with a buffet supper capping the celebration.

Relatives attend open house

THE STANLEY Sietzs, who recently moved to Dexter, held an open house April 24 in honor of their son, Bill, who was to receive a degree in electrical engineering from the U-M May 1.

Among those congratulating the graduate were his grandmother, Mrs. William Sietz; his aunt and cousins, Gloria Polzin and family; and other relatives, Bill and Mary Ann Emerson, Tom and Grace Hudge, Jim and Barb Lewis, Joe and Jan Ross, the Bert Smiths, the Bill Huges, the Jim Huges, John Bokon and Joe Sietz.

Aaron is a 'first' for the Darnells

A FIFTH GRANDCHILD was added to the Albert Straub's family tree March 27 with the birth of a son, Aaron James, to Jim and Kathy Darnell of 9301 Cornell Street, Taylor.

The 8lb. 14-oz. heir arrived at Botsford General Hospital, Farmington. His mother is the former Kathy Bruder.

Bright printed sheets turn up all over the house now-a-days. For instance, sheets backed with plain plastic linings make ideal shower curtains. Most cotton percale sheets in decorator prints come with coordinated terry cloth towels, so give your bedroom a new decor look with matched shower curtain and towels.

To give new life to leftover rump roast, cut slices into strips and heat in gravy or stroganoff sauce mix. Serve over toast triangles or buttered noodles.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT E. BALDWIN

Wed at Baptist Church

Canadian trip follows Baldwin-Metcalf vows

The Forest Avenue Baptist Church in Ypsilanti was reserved April 10 for the double ring wedding of Suzanne Metcalf of Ypsilanti and Robert E. Baldwin of Belleville.

Rev. Harold Johnson presided at the two o'clock nuptials before an altar adorned with white and pink carnations and gladiolas.

Judy Miller was at the organ to accompany Clyde and Betty Phillips as they sang 'More' and 'The Wedding Prayer.'

Suzanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Metcalf of 1489 Foley, Ypsilanti, and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Baldwin of 12044 Ryznar Drive, Belleville.

ESCORTED UP the aisle by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of silk organza over taffeta. Venise lace formed the high neckline of the dress with vertical inserts extending to the high waistline banded in pale pink satin ribbon. The lace motif was repeated on the bishop sleeves, on the cuffs, down the A-line skirt and again on the detachable chapel train.

Their headpieces, in matching colors, were identical to the bride's with brief veils attached and their arm bouquets were comprised of carnations.

John Bole of Belleville was asked to be best man with Jeffrey Jenkins and Phillip Chevela serving as groomsmen. Seating the 400 guests were the bridegroom's two brothers, David and Michael Baldwin and the bride's brothers, Kim and Arthur Metcalf.

Slip spicy sausage in hot burger buns

For a change of pace, place juicy pork sausage between warmed burger buns. Top the spicy patties with tomato slices and onion rings for a quick-to-fix lunch, suggests Reba Staggs, home economist of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Sausageburgers

2 pounds pork sausage
3 tablespoons water
2 large tomatoes, each cut into 4 slices
1 medium-sized onion, cut into 8 slices and separated into rings
8 hamburger buns, warmed

Shape sausage into 8 patties, ½ to ¾ inches thick, 3 to 4 inches in diameter. Place in a cold frying-pan, add water, cover and cook over low heat 5 minutes. Pour off drippings. Cook patties slowly on both sides until well done. Place patties, tomato slices and onion rings between halves of warmed hamburger buns. Yield: 8 sandwiches.

Drifting to mid-back length, her silk illusion veil was caught to a headpiece of looped organza ribbon. Completing her bridal finery was an arm bouquet of white carnations and two red roses.

Gloria Pomeroy, the bride's cousin, traveled from Peterborough, Ontario to be maid of honor with Brenda Wakefield of Rockwood and Gail Stenning of Ypsilanti serving as bridesmaids.

IDENTICALLY STYLED, their toe-touching gowns were of silk organza over taffeta with pin-striped bishop sleeves featuring wide insets of Venise lace. The lace trim was also used on the high necklines and to form a suspender effect on the bodice. Miss Pomeroy was dressed in pink while the attendants were in pale green.

The four-tier wedding cake, accented with pink icing and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was the work of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Baldwin, who, with her husband, hosted the rehearsal dinner at their Ryznar Drive home the evening before the wedding.

Since returning from a 10-day honeymoon in Canada, the newlyweds have made their home at 9745 Geddes Road.

The new Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of Willow Run High School. Bob, who graduated from Belleville High, attended Ferris State College and is currently a junior at Eastern Michigan University. He is employed by Van Buren Public Schools.

Cost of convenience

A recent experiment showed that homemakers could save 25 hours, 13 minutes by using 41 convenience food items. On the other hand, when the same foods were prepared from scratch, the cost was 45 percent less. Question now — is it worth it? The time saved compared to extra cost amounted to spending 32c an hour. Viewed another way, the convenience foods represent hired help in kitchens getting paid at the rate of 32c an hour.

Up, up, up!

Should inflation continue at its present rate, in 28 years a person making $7,200 today would need to earn $16,800 to maintain his present standard of living. A $25,000 home today would cost $58,000, television sets would increase from $275 to almost $640. A suit today costing $125.00 would be $290.00 and college tuition would be double what it is today.

Americans are eating record amounts of fat

Americans seem more concerned than ever with health and appearance, but they are consuming fat in record amounts.

"Perhaps one of the reasons is that much of that fat we eat is hidden," says Miss Ada Shinabarger, Michigan State University consumer information specialist. "Fat sneaks into our diets when we drink milk and eat eggs, meat, poultry and fish."

We also consume fat when we eat baked goods, candy and ice cream, potato chips, French fries and fish sticks, reports Miss Shinabarger. "On the average, more than 40 percent of our calorie intake is fat. Or about twice as much as we need."

Fat contains more than two times the calories found in an equal amount of protein or carbohydrate, so it is a real culprit for individuals who need and use less calories.

The best place to start reducing fat in the diet is with foods that contribute fat and little else. Table fats, foods

Costuming for 'Brigadoon' involves work -- n lots of it

By LEE SMITH
Women's Editor

Planning the wardrobe for a period production is no easy task since it involves hours of research, and then preparing sketches, planning color coordination and the proper fabrics and prints. Along with the dresses, trousers, shirts, and other major items comes the added chore of assembling the correct accessories such as shoes, stockings, bonnets, aprons, shawls, and parasols.

No wonder the award for costume design is among the major accolades given during the annual Hollywood Oscar presentation.

At Belleville High School, where rehearsals for "Brigadoon" are in their final weeks, the job of wardrobe mistress has fallen on Mrs. Karen Sinkus who, with her assistant Barb Babut, and students Faye Ivan, Pam Stead and Lorel Wolf, are putting the costumes in readiness for opening night May 14.

"Our aim," Mrs. Sinkus told us, "has been to see that costumes are made as authentically as possible for that period." She and Miss Babut have delved into research of the Scottish peasant dress of the 1700's in order to duplicate as nearly as possible from that era.

Each girl in the cast is responsible for sewing her own costume or finding someone to make it for her. There are a total of 35 dresses needed for the show. They are rather rustic and simple with full, long skirts and fitted bodices.

MOST OF the men's wardrobe is being rented and will include traditional Highland clothes such as the tartan kilt and the blouse-like shirt. Some men will be garbed in trousers and vests.

The student wardrobe committee has helped some cast members to make their costumes. They will also assist the cast during rehearsals and performances. And, as always, many mothers, sisters and friends are giving their time and talents to make "Brigadoon" another successful presentation.

Dates for the all-school musical are May 14, 15, 20, and 21 with curtain time at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

All tickets for "Brigadoon" are reserved.

The box office in the auditorium will be open from 4 to 5 p.m. every day Monday through Friday. On Saturday, May 8, a ticket stand will be located in front of Kirk's Drug Store on Main Street for shoppers to purchase their tickets.

Sheriff gives advice to parents in Sumpter

Douglas Harvey, sheriff of Washtenaw County, spoke at the monthly Parent-teacher organization (PTO) meeting at Sumpter Elementary School.

His topic was discipline, the family and their relation to social problems.

"Parents who talk negatively to or about police, teachers or principals in front of children are doing a great disservice. This is one of the major reasons for the breakdown in respect, control and discipline on the streets and in the schools," commented Harvey.

Sheriff Harvey presented an eight point program for parents who can avoid problems with alterness and concern:

Discipline is a necessity; kids want it! Do not spare the rod. Take an interest in your child's interests.

Know your children's friends.

Make your home available for the kids and friends.

Mt. Pleasant PTA planning annual spring fair Saturday

The Mt. Pleasant Elementary School PTA will hold its annual spring fair from noon to 5 p.m., Saturday, at the school, 39000 Superior Rd., Romulus.

Fair chairman and school principal Harold Connon promises this year's fair will be the best yet, with items of interest for every member of the family.

For the adults, the general store has been given a room of its own this year so that all the sewing items and novelties can be displayed. Mrs. Barbara Uller and Mrs. Sally Manning will again be in charge of this popular activity. Donations from the community will be accepted for the store right up to the actual fair.

Joyce Minnaugh and Mrs. Helen Carroll will be back in their Gypsy Fortune Teller booths again this year. Mrs. Vi Martin will alternately run a cake walk with a plush animal walk this year.

Among the activities of interest to youngsters will be the milk can toss, Dig for "Pirates Gold," the "Duck Pong," milk bottle toss, and a Lollipop Tree.

Games of skill for older folks include "Tip the Cat," a Pan Game, a Plush Teddy Bear Toss, and the 7-11 game.

An added attraction this year will enable the public to create original works of art. Co-chaired by Mt. Pleasant art instructor Mrs. Linda Paret and 5th grade teacher Mrs. Algertha Leonard, the "Orbit Art" has been featured at such places as the Westland Shopping mall.

If weather permits an outside activity, there will be pony rides offered.

To satisfy fair goers' thirst and sweet tooth Martin Dickerson and the sixth grade campers will be manning the Coke wagon and Mrs. Linda Merriman the cotton candy machine.

Advance tickets will be handled by Mrs. Anne Johnson and Mrs. Sue Pratt and be sold at Mt. Pleasant before school on two days only, Wednesday, May 5, and Friday, May 7 at a reduced price of 12 tickets for one dollar. Prices at the door will be 10 cents per ticket.

Profits from the fair will be used to support the school dental health program and purchase materials for the school.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

"Mommy, fix it, please." ... "Mother, help me, please." ... As children we knew we could count on her, and we did. She understood us. She was our insulation against childish chills of fear and anxieties. As time goes on, many mothers hear different words; strange words of impatience, irritation, exasperation—yes, even rebellion. They hear, "Oh, mother, you just don't understand." In later years, if we will only admit it, we know many mothers did understand things that were beyond our understanding in former years. But, there are some things a mother should not be expected to understand at any time.

How can she understand why days and weeks go by with no word from those she likes to hear from? How can she understand why she is expected to be insensitive to indifference or neglect? How can she understand why expected phone calls don't come through? How can she understand why (unwritten) letters don't arrive?

Yet, on Mother's Day she understands. Frankly, wouldn't it be more pleasant for her if demands for her understanding would be less on all the other days? ...

TASTING TIME — Little Miss Karen J. Gregor, 6, of 7388 Burton St., Romulus, member of Mrs. Virginia Wagner's first grade class at the Gordonier Elementary School, was caught by our Chief Photographer Lothar Komietzko at Tasting Time at the annual Students' Science Fair held last Friday at the school. She apprehensively waits her turn.

WELL, HERE GOES! — Karen samples by way of her finger one of the refreshments at the successful science fair. From her expression we are not sure of her decision until we note the results in the adjacent picture.

"WOW, ITS SOUR!" — was the comment of Karen after participating in the Tasting Time contest at the Science Fair. School Principal Daniel Murray reported the annual Students' Science Fair to be enjoyable, interesting and educational.

Student job interests studied

The Belleville Senior High Curriculum Study Committee in cooperation with the Van Buren Public School District Board of Education conducted a survey to determine the student's occupation al interests.

Over 1,200 students responded on the forms that listed some 80 occupations and professions. The forms were processed by computer at Eastern Michigan University.

A review of the report showed the eight occupations most frequently chosen by the girls were:

Secretary, beautician, teacher, typist, social worker, waitress, child care aide, and nurses' aide.

Of these eight occupations, only those marked with an asterisk can the girls of Belleville High School receive preparation for employment.

Occupations chosen by the boys (in order) were:

Electrician, auto mechanic teacher, carpenter, forestry or conservation, draftsman (Architect), auto body repairman and lawyer.

Only those boys interested in auto mechanics and auto body repair receive high school preparation for employment.

Of the above mentioned occupations, a number could be added to the curriculum without added expense and personnel.

Approximately one-third of the students plan to attend a four-year college. Over one-third plan to go to work immediately upon graduation. The balance plan to do such things as enter military service, become a housewife and so forth.

Over 45 per cent of the students are in the general curriculum program, 9 per cent on commercial under 6 per cent in vocational and 38 per cent in college preparatory.

At a specially called Board of Education meeting held recently, the following report was presented by the High School Curriculum Committee. Copies of a complete 22-page occupational Interest Survey report were given to each board member and to administrators.

Jail urged to combat incorrigible drivers

"The only way to be sure of keeping incorrigible drivers off the roads is to put them in jail," Secretary of State Richard H. Austin said in keynoting the Michigan Safety Conference.

Austin said that the only effective means of handling incorrigible drivers is to "take them out of circulation for terms long enough to discourage them from flouting the law in the arrogant manner so many of them do now."

The Secretary of State based his remarks upon the record of a young driver who was responsible for a multi-car wreck that killed seven people on a Detroit expressway recently.

Pointing out that the driver in question had driven automobiles while his license was suspended, and that he had been arrested three times during the suspension period, Austin said:

"The mere suspension or revocation of a driver license - no matter for what period of time - will not, or cannot, guarantee that an incorrigible driver will be physically removed from behind the wheel of an automobile. We can, for certain violations, repossess the license plates of his car and police can impound the vehicle.

"But the records are replete with cases of scofflaw incorrigibles who then drive someone else's car.

"I am considering a proposal to the State Legislature that would provide stiffer and longer mandatory prison sentences for repeated violations of the traffic laws and accumulations of points against driver records.

"It may become necessary," Austin said, "to consider legislation that would provide in certain instances for, perhaps, even permanent, lifetime revocation of a driver license after an incorrigible driver has been suspended at least three times."

Mandatory penalty for driving under such revocation should be significant minimum prison confinement.

"Further, I would attempt to notify the appropriate licensing agency in every other state of these lifetime revocations so that an incorrigible driver might be refused if he tried to get a license in another state.

"It is time to crack down; to make life unpleasant for those who make life unpleasant and often disastrous for others on the highways," Austin said.

CYO Camps filling fast camps

Thirteen days at a CYO Summer Camp is an experience that lasts a lifetime.

That is the word from CYO Camp Division Director Henry Vassel, who is now hard at work making preparations for the new season which opens June 25 at the CYO Camp for Boys and at the CYO

Camp Camp for Girls on Lake Huron.

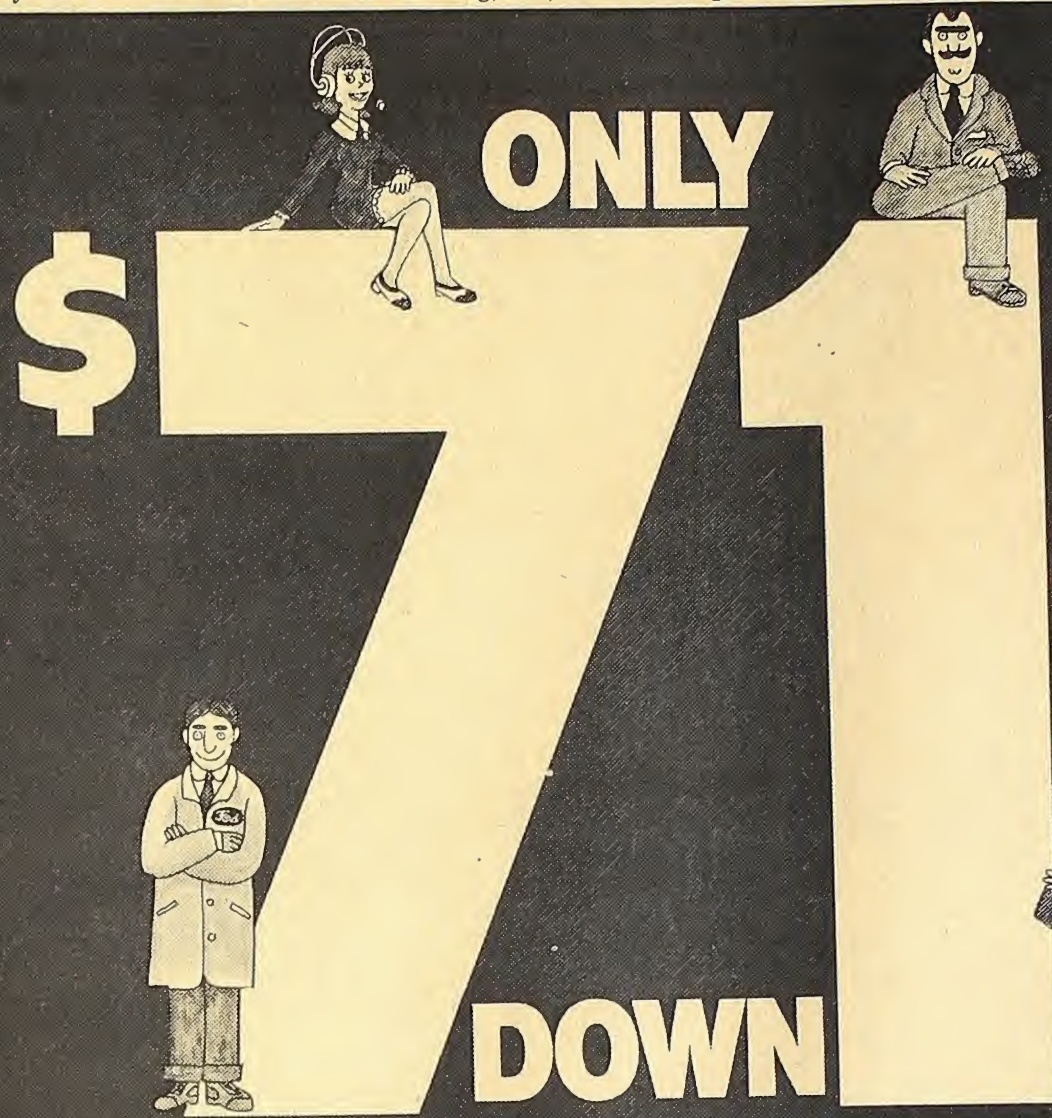

Boys and girls can choose now from among five 13 day periods at these camps, but the registration lists are filling fast.

For details, contact the CYO Camp Division, 9th Floor, Gabriel Richard Building, 305

Michigan Ave., Detroit 48226, telephone 963-7172.

"Boys and girls have fun at the CYO camps, but that is nothing compared to the lasting benefits they gain," Vassel says. "I've seen it happen so often, and it is amazing how much boys and girls can grow in understanding and self-reliance in just two weeks. "For most beginning campers, this is an entirely different kind of experience. They are living away from home for the first time, among strangers. And they have a chance to make decisions, to decide their course of action. The counselors allow the campers a great measure of individual freedom."

LOW COST VEHICLE LOANS SINCE 1871

The one-horse carriage doesn't look like much today. But, in 1871, it was considered a very sporty model. In a hundred years of helping downriver residents finance transportation, we've seen vehicles change dramatically. But, people haven't changed that much. Your great-grandparents came to Wyandotte Savings Bank for dependable service... and low vehicle loan rates. We still offer both.
